Brookside Branch WNFGA Sponsors Garden Picnic

By GLORIA JESSUP
MA 6-3257

MEMBERS OF the Brookside branch, WNFGA gathered at the home of Mrs. Charles Galloway on S. Pemberton Road recently for a garden picnic.

Special guests included Mrs. Carl Larson of Ardmore Drive, sponsor of the newly formed group, and Mrs. Philip Hoops of Chicago.

Two new members were also in attendance. They were Mrs. Edwin Lewis of Club Drive and Mrs. John R. Slavsky of Dowbridge, Orchard Lake.

Following refreshments, the members made floral arrangements with flowers from their own gardens. Mrs. Larson acted as judge.

MRS. PHILIP HOOPS of Chicago has been visiting in the home of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Winn on S. Pemberton Road, for the past three weeks.

Mrs. Hoops brought her two granddaughters, Linda and Karen, with her.

Mr. Ebb Warren and his daughter, Sandi, of Gaylord, Mich., spent a week in the area recently while Warren appeared daily as guest on the George Pierre TV show.

Sandi was the houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Clark of Apple Lane while her father stayed in the Detroit area to be close to the studio.

To Be Bride

Mr. and Mrs. Frank F. Ryan of Tully Road, Bloomfield Hills, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Virginia Ann, to Monte B. Pepperbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Pepperbell of Manchester Road, Birmingham. Miss Ryan was graduated from Bloomfield Hills School and attended Central Michigan University. Her fiancé attended Central Michigan and the Detroit Institute of Technology and is currently stationed in Atlanta, Ga., with the U. S. Army. An Aug. 30 wedding is planned.

ON JUNE 28 Mr. and Mrs. Clark gave a party in honor of their son, Rick, who was celebrating his 21st birthday.

Among those attending were Ebb Warren and daughter Sandi, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kidney with Royanne and Mike of Birmingham, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wareham and son Don of Orchard Lake, the Clark Warehams and daughter Heidi, formerly from Birmingham, now of Dearborn and the Roy Coopers and son Jim of Huntington Woods.

ANOTHER SON, Sandy Clark, was present at the party, but Bob Clark was traveling in California.

Another birthday party was a "sweet sixteen" affair for Diane Simanek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Simanek of Westwood Lane.

Diane invited 50 of her friends from Bloomfield Hills and Groves High Schools to join her and help celebrate on June 30.

The group gathered at four to go swimming, followed by dinner and dancing from 8 p.m. to midnight to a band.

Dr. and Mrs. Earl Weston of Forman Drive spent a long weekend at Johnson's Rustic Lodge on Houghton Lake recently.

They had a reunion with three other couples, visited with their personal friends, the Johnsons, and got acquainted with many "Tigers" and their families who were also vacationing at the lodge.

MR. AND MRS. Larry Beyer of Kolly Road have had Mrs. Beyer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Major of Houston, Texas, as their houseguests.

The Majors spent the month of June and attended the graduation of the Byers' daughter, Barbara, from Bloomfield Hills High School.

Last Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Beyer entertained at a patio supper.

The party was given in honor of Mrs. Beyer's cousin, Mrs. Victor Ferrari, who is visiting in the area for the first time in seven years.

MRS. FERRARI and her two sons, Vic Jr. and Steve, are dividing their stay between Rochester and Grosse Pointe, visiting with other relations.

Those who attended the patio supper and enjoyed swimming and sailing were the five Beyer children, Mr. and Mrs. David Keena and their four children from Rochester, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fowin of Grosse Pointe (Mrs. Ferrari's parents) and Mrs. Ferrari and her two boys.

MR. AND MRS. Ernest F. Scherer of Apple Lane gave a small dinner party last Saturday evening.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Clark and newcomers to the area, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Worthley.

Tailoring artistry heightens this softened, sophisticated, day-length gown of imported pure silk peau d'ange. The femininely scooped neckline, welcome sleeve and interesting skirt shaping for figure flattery all contribute to the answer for many-occasion dressing. Designed by Mort Mogel, it comes in ice blue, pink, gold, champagne, emerald or regency red.

Delicate hand applique and corded embroidery enhance the attached bodice of this floor-length, or short, gown which comes in shades of ice blue, pink, champagne, mint and gold. The gentled, slimming skirt is artfully created by Mort Mogel for graceful movement. For shopping information call MI 4-1100.

Surf Club Celebrates Anniversary

The Bloomfield Surf Club, E. Square Lake Road, will celebrate its first anniversary with a "Shipwreck Party" on July 27.

A punch party will be held from 7 p.m. until 8:30 p.m., followed by dinner and dancing by the pool. Comic diving will be the highlight of the entertainment. Swimming will continue throughout the evening and prizes will be given for the most original costumes.

MRS. JAMES Buckley of Bloomfield Hills is chairman of the event. She is assisted by Mrs. Raymond Connolly of Birmingham, Mrs. Frank Teeffey, Mrs. James Frith, Mrs. L. J. Michaels and Mrs. Richard deSpelder, all of Bloomfield Hills.

The Surf Club was originally the idea of a few Hugh Hills residents, but has branched to include some 300 families. It has an olympic size pool and tennis courts were recently added to the recreational area.
