MRS. KRUGER

MRS. CLARK

Uncle of Bride Officiates at Ceremony

The Rev. John McKinney officiated at the recent marriage of his niece, La Mona N. Havens, to David A. Kruger. The bride's parents are the Rev. and Mrs. Daniel Havens of Pontiac. The bridegroom is the son of the Eldridge M. Krugers of Birmingham. For the double-ring ceremony at the Christian Temple, Pontiac, the bride chose a silk organza and Alencon lace gown. A crown of seed pearls and orange blossoms secured her illusion veil. She carried white cymbidium orchids on a white Bible.

MRS. JOHN McKinney of Clawson attended the bride as matron of honor. She wore a champagne peon satin gown and carried an arrangement of pink and white tipped carnations. Michael McDonald of Birmingham was best man. The couple will live at Cass Lake after a northern honeymoon.

Couple United In Candlelight Ceremony

Attired in a floor length sheath of silk organza over tulle edged with Swedish lace, Joyce Susanne Tolhurst became the bride of Gordon Penner Clark on July 5 at St. John Lutheran Church, Rochester. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Edgar Tolhurst of Rochester. He is the son of Mrs. Harry Gordon Clark of Franklin Road, Birmingham, and the late Dr. Clark.

THE REV. Kenneth Fisher officiated at the double-ring candlelight ceremony. A Swedish crown secured the bride's veil of bouffant silk illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet.

Lynn Marie Tolhurst of Rochester, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids include Valerie Tolhurst, sister of the bride, Geraldine Clark and Alyson Clark of Birmingham, both sisters of the bridegroom. They wore floor length gowns of blush pink silk tulle and carried cascade bouquets of rose carnations. The maid of honor's bouquet was of roses and carnations.

LT. ROBERT Hyde Treadway Jr. of Birmingham, presently stationed with the U. S. Army at Ft. Bragg, N. C., assisted as best man.

Ushers include Geoffrey Adam Clark, brother of the bridegroom; John Wallace Risk of Birmingham, Richard H. Marsh Detroit and Louis Senunas of Grand Rapids. After the ceremony a reception was held at the Elk's Temple, Rochester.

BEVERLY HILLS

Athletic Club Plans Full Summer Program

By LOUISE N. KRAEMER
MI 6-9716

The Beverly Hills Athletic Club has a fun filled program planned for the summer.

Bridge games are planned for the ladies every Wednesday afternoon and facilities are available for playing at any other time.

There are "Teen Nights" to which teenagers may invite guests. The next two will be on July 31 and August 23. Adult nights for parties will be on July 13, July 27, August 10 and August 24. Members may also bring guests to these.

THE SWIMMING teams are working hard and will hold their meets on successive Thursdays at 6:30 p.m. They will go to Forest Hills on July 11. On July 18 Kendallwood will come to Beverly Hills. They will entertain Farmington Glen on July 25 and Cranbrook Country Club on August 1.

Beverly Hills will go to Cranbrook Country Club on August 8 and to Bloomfield Surf on August 15.

The league meet will be held on August 23 and 24 at the Kendallwood Club.

THE RESIDENTS of Verona Circle have new neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Robin have moved here from Chicago with their small daughter, Becky, and son Dan, who is only a few weeks old.

Also Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Jacobson recently moved from Royal Oak. Jacobson is with Weston Tool Co. There are three young Jacob-sons, a girl and two boys, who do a lot of traveling between here and Royal Oak keeping in touch with old friends while making new friends.

MRS. ROBERT E. Sudz on Auburn recently gave a coffee in honor of Mrs. James Ellis, a newcomer in the neighborhood who moved here from Madison Heights.

Mrs. Ellis has been teaching and Mr. Ellis is with the Chevrolet Motor Co.

Friends and neighbors who became acquainted and welcomed Mrs. Ellis to the neighborhood were Mrs. Clair Cummings, Mrs. Pres Gorman, Mrs. Sam Bela, Mrs. Robert Brown, Mrs. William Dupler, Mrs. Larry Marchetti, Mrs. Jack Clemens, Mrs. Karlo Heikkinen, Mrs. Earl Beerbauer and Mrs. George Prokopik.
