Boy Scouts Receive Awards at D-A Camp

By ELEANOR NELSEN
MI 7-0656

Celebration of the Fourth of July was somewhat overshadowed at the D-A Boy Scout Camp at Metamora by the festivities that took place there on July 5.

Troop No. 1012 held a Court of Honor and after came the introduction of various chairmen of committees by Robert Phelan.

Donald Dickerson, director of the D-A camp, had the honor of presenting Eagle Awards to four of the boys in Troop No. 1012.

They were John Bode, James Busch, Donald Desautels

JACK BODE AND CHRIS SCHIEWE

and Christopher Schiewe. At the same time 55 merit badges were awarded, the largest number achieved by a troop in camp.

Eight boys completing the mile swim were James Sweeton, Roger Schreiber, Donald Desautels, John Bode, Robert Busch, Ben Scheiwe, Richard Mason and Tim Murphy.

FIRST CLASS badges went to Gordon Minieler, Brian Desautels, Mike Schneider and Steve Staeger.

Second class badges were presented to Paul Denn, Charles Bodette, Robert Holt and Paul Zlotek.

There were 26 boys who camped at Trout Lake Cabin in the first week in July.

At the end of the ceremony it was proclaimed that the troop had achieved its greatest year in scouting under the able leadership of Scoutmaster Angus Latimer.

PARENTS who attended the Camp Fire Ceremony, where entertainment was provided by members of troops in Trout Lake Camp, were Mr. and Mrs. Hans Scheiwe, Mr. and Mrs. William Busch, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Schreiber and Mr. and Mrs. John Bode.

Candlelight Ceremony Unites Pair

Mabel Esther Reed spoke her marriage vows to Michael Balfour on July 13 at the First Presbyterian Church of Flint.

Parents of the bride are Mrs. Evelyn I. Reed of Flushing, Mich., and Mr. Monty G. Reed of Pontiac. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David Balfour of Bloomfield Hills.

For the double-ring candlelight ceremony the bride chose a floor length gown of re-embroidered Chantilly lace with a fitted bodice and scoop neckline appliqued with white embroidered daisies and seed pearls.

HER FINGERPRINT veil of English illusion fell from a six-pointed pearl and rhineston crown. She carried a bouquet of white and pink roses.

Beverly Ann Balfour, sister of the groom, attended as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Elaine Carr of Mt. Morris, Mich., and Ariene Atkin of Clio, Mich.

The attendants wore sheaths of peppermint green silk organza over taffeta. They carried pink roses and white carnations.

Benefits

ers, families or friends of the patients.

The only requisite for the sisters' services is that the patient must be under medical supervision. They go into the home, evaluate the personal needs of each case and nurse the injured, the young, the geriatric, acute or chronic patient.

The sisters do perform some household tasks when it is necessary in connection with the nursing care. Food, medicine and linen room equipment are provided when necessary.

No financial assistance is ever accepted from the patients, not even a voluntary donation if it is offered.

THE ANNIVERSARY party chairman was Mrs. James M. Roche and Mrs. Aloysius F. Power of Dunstan Road, Bloomfield Hills, and Mrs. Jerry J. Flanigan of Birmingham. On Wednesday morning Mrs. Flanigan had a coffee and meeting in her home in Rugby Road for twenty North Enders and suburbanites. They are planning the decor and menu on the theme of outdoor living. The anniversary celebration promises to be a real fun old-fashioned picnic with all the trimmings.

Mrs. Joseph J. Churches of Bloomfield Hills and Mrs. J. Clarence Grix of Royal Oak are in charge of special prizes.

Among others assisting with arrangements are Mesdames John G. Gibson, Leo Weber, Francis Purary, Michael J. Swift, Harry Rendell, Joseph J. Cacchi, Edward H. Kelley, Charles J. Davitt, J. Fred Selman, Peter Rizzo and Leo G. Jentgen.

A Moving Tip—

Declare a holiday. Have family meals out on the day of arrival, maybe the second day, too. That relieves the physical and emotional strain on Mom—and once she begins to relax the whole family benefits.
