Honors Bride-Elect

BLOOMFIELD WEST

Nancy and Janis Phelps
Attend Interlochen Camp

By ELIZABETH VAN LOAN
MI 7-2324

Mrs. Norman W. Daniel of Snow Shoe Circle, Bloomfield Hills, entertained at a luncheon and bridal shower Saturday honoring Shady White of Birmingham whose marriage to Lawrence Lovell of Bloomfield Hills will take place Aug. 17 in Christ Church-Cranbrook.

It's "Hello" and "Goodbye" as Nancy Phelps returns from the National Music Camp at Interlochen, where she played in the all state band, and her sister, Janis, takes off for the camp next Monday.

They are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. John Phelps of Walnut Lake Road.

A lecture and demonstration of Victorian floral arrangements were given by Marshall Engle of Greenfield Village to the Walnut Lake branch WNFCA at the July 1 meeting.

MEMBERS MET at the home of Mrs. William Loll on Middlebelt Road. Serving on the tea committee were Mrs. Kenneth Bielby and Mrs. Walter Burton.

Coming from Canton, O., this weekend for a visit with the Alex Rikers of Raven Road are Mr. and Mrs. Paul Laurensen.

The John Wares of Sutters Lane had perfect weather on the Fourth of July when they invited neighbors to try out their newly installed swimming pool and stay on for a picnic supper.

AMONG THE guests were Mr. and Mrs. James Mundy who formerly lived on Kingsmill Drive before moving to New Orleans on a year ago.

On Wednesday, Craig Ware is off to Camp Ne-Kana in Manistique, together with Tom Bewick and Chip Gagner, both of Kingsmill Drive.

Tom, 16, will be a counselor-in-training. Craig's dad is driving the trio to the Upper Peninsula camp.

HERE ON a visit from Paramus, N.J., is John White. He is staying with his daughter and her family, the John Cookes of Woodwind Drive.

The Martin Healeys of Sutters Lane are back from a jam-packed two weeks of traveling, visiting, sight-seeing and relaxation.

They left on June 29 with Pat, Moni and Jeff for a visit with Grandfather Frank Stroud in Omaha, Neb., then motored north to Dell Rapids, S. Dak., for an overnight stay with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Frederickson, Healey's brother-in-law and sister.

NEXT ON the itinerary was Wisconsin Dells. After a quick stop at home, the Healeys were off again on July 7 for a five-day stay at the Iroquois on Mackinac Island.

While baby Andrew James stayed with his aunt, Mrs. Robert Warner of Yorkshire Road, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Henkel of Quarton Road took their three older children, Rick, Margaret and Karen, for a week's stay at the Hiawatha Sportsman's Club in Engadine. They returned on July 6.

Mr. and Mrs. George Reesor and their three children returned on July 6 from a week's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Yeary, of Steelville, Mo.

NANCY QUINN, daughter of the John Quinns of Fieldbrook Road, left last Sunday for Clear Lake Camp near Chico Creek.

She joined Emily Woodward of Stoddard Road and Susan Jakust of Worcester Drive, who were already at the camp, and will stay until the end of July.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Bickley and Craig of Barnaby Court returned on July 9 from a week's sightseeing trip through Ohio and Kentucky.

They stopped over at Dayton to visit the Air Force Museum at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, then traveled on to Lexington, Ky., to see the horse farms.

HIGHLIGHT of the trip was a tour through Mammoth Cave and the four old friends—four other couples and their children—who gathered there from different parts of the country.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Fowle and their three children of Inverary Road returned on July 8 from a five-day stay in Oshawa, Ontario, Ontario, where they were the guests of his aunt, Mrs. William Walters.

THE ROBERT Donleys of Braemore Trail were hosts on land and on sea during the week of the Fourth of July.

Overnight guests on July 2 were Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Deane Jr. and their daughter of Richmond, Va., who were on their way to a western vacation.

The next day Donley's parents arrived from Buchanan, Mich., and the Fourth was spent at Lake St. Clair aboard the "Elbea", the Donleys' cabin cruiser.

WHILE three-year-old Cathy settled down for a weekend at home with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Donley and elder daughter, Emily, took their children on the fifth for a leisurely cruise across the lake, the St. Clair River and the canal to Wallaceburg, Ontario, and return. The perch fishing was excellent, they report.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Barber were hosts on July 8 to their monthly potluck supper and bridge group.

Gathering at the Barbars' home on Eastmoor Road were the Joe Koszkas, Richard Pierzols and Neale Schermerhorns.

Birth Announced

Lt. and Mrs. John Hogshhead are the parents of a new son, John Harlan II. He joins the Hogshhead's 2-year-old daughter, Elizabeth Anne.

Mrs. Hogshhead is the former Beryl Anne Komjathy of Strathmore Road, Detroit. Lt. Hogshhead is a pilot in the U. S. Air Force and stationed at Kelly Air Base, San Antonio, Texas. Paternal grandparents are the Brent K. Hogshheads of 1519 Henrietta, Birmingham.

Susan Mally Leaves For European Summer

By ELIZABETH YATES
MI 6-1682

A group of friends and relatives gathered at Metropolitan Airport on Sunday to bid Susan Mally of Upton Road farewell as she left for Europe.

Susan, the daughter of the George Mallys, was met by Mrs. Valeria Cruysmans and friends in Brussels, Belgium, where they began their summer tour of Italy.

Susan's tentative plans include returning to Brussels in Sept., where she will study the language and work on her masters in sociology.

In Sunday's bon voyage party were Mr. and Mrs. George Mally and son, Tim, Bob Mason of Birmingham, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Mally of Berkeley, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Meyers of Royal Oak, Mr. and Mrs. William Mack of Grand Rapids.

THE GEORGE Mallys are now looking forward to a summer visit from their son and wife, Dr. and Mrs. Michael Mally of Tyndall, S. D.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Ranck and daughter, Kimberly Grace, have returned to their home in Dallas, Tex., after a 10-day visit with Mrs. Ranck's parents, the John Duncans of Oakhill Drive, and the George Rancks of Berkeley.

While here, Kimberly was christened at the Congregational Church of Birmingham.

The C. Jack Pisters and sons, Jack, David and Steve, of Westview Drive traveled to Cincinnati, Ohio, for the 65th birthday celebration on July 4 of W. H. Love, father of Mrs. Pistor.

The family stayed on for a few days visiting relatives and friends.

The George Solas of Walnut Hill Drive joined other Birmingham-Bloomfield couples at the Grand Hotel on Mackinac Island for the three-day Consumer Power Co. convention last week. The Sold children, Cheryl and Michael, journeyed to a hunting cabin near Milo with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clise, before joining their parents at Mackinac City and a tour of the Upper Peninsula.

After the trip the Sold family settled at a cottage at Goodrich Lake near Battle Creek for a relaxing week.

THE DICK GREENS of Masfield Drive motored to Mackinac Island for a four-day stay at the Grand Hotel.

They attended the Michigan Automotive Dealers convention, swim and bicycled.

The Dan Cassino family of Masfield Drive spent the past two weeks visiting in the east.

They were guests of Cassino's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Cassino of Lake Carmel, N. Y., for a week before journeying to Roanoke, Va., to visit other relatives.

Rickie Morrison, ten-year-old son of the Richard Morrisons of Stonyridge Road, is presently enjoying a month of camp life at Hazawitka near Traverse City.

On his return the Morrisons will be moving into their new home on Chesterfield Drive, Bloomfield Hills, after seven years in the Thornwood subdivision.

It's A Boy

Mr. and Mrs. Donald S. Condon (Diane Mashek of Evergreen park, Ill.) of Orchard Lake formerly of Toledo, O., announce the birth of a son, Brian Joseph, on July 2.

Make a list of those "don't miss" today, Dial MI 4-1100 and a Classi Least will help you.

From Bermuda to Michigan

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Morton III are at home in Ann Arbor following a honeymoon in Bermuda, where they stayed at the Horizon's on the south shore. The former Melinda Stein, daughter of the W. O. Steins of Peoria, Ill., will be teaching in Ypsilanti this fall, while her husband, son of Mrs. John F. McLean, Jr. of Birmingham and the late Dr. James A. Morton, will be working on his masters in business administration at the University of Michigan.
