Fame, at least, as a neeting thing.

And thing are the great are immortalized through the medium of poetry and this is the story of how three little league managers in Bloomfield Hills will be remembered.

Murray Binkloy, Frank Mibum managed the Connat Cube to the National League championship in the Hills Baseball League this year.

LEST THEY be forgotten, Mrs. Milburn composed this poem which she read at the team banquet last week: Now it's time to give a cheer To the coach and managers of the year.

For their drive and their ambition

ambition
They deserve some recognition.

To Murray, Frank and Fred It's a wonder they aren't

How they worried and they fret If their Cubs were not ahead.

It was, "Atta-baby"—"Way to go", "Look Alive" — "Make em "Look Alive" — "Make em throw!" "Watch the ball"—"Take a cut"— "Get that team out of its rut!"

Who cares for office, job, or fame? All that matters is the game!

Dinner's ruined, yard's a mess, But Conant Cubs lead all the

Now that all is said and done, And the championship is won,

The uniforms are put away,
And there's no more baseball
every day,
What will they do with all
their time
This couch and managers so fine?

We'll tell you what they'll do alright. They'll be home on time every night. They'll wash the windows, cut the grass, Pull the weeds, haul the trash!

Baseball's over boys, it's true.
Now nothing's left but work to do.

But just so they won't shed a tear, We'll offer up one final

Here's to Murray, Frank, and Fred Your little Cubs sure knocked 'em dead!
