Clean-up Closes Community House

The Community House will be closed for four weeks beginning Saturday.

Executive Director Robert Boggs said the 10-room, two-story structure will be closed to permit a general clean-up of the interior.

IT WILL include painting, washing, relaying of carpet, cleaning of drapes and minor repairs.

"We will open again on Aug. 26 and begin accepting registrations for our fall semester of adult education classes the following week," he said.

Pearl Harbor Survivors Stage Missouri Reunion

Obituary Notices

Wilfred H. Daudelin

Services for Wilfred H. Daudelin, 80, of 476 W. Brown, Birmingham, took place Saturday in Holy Name Church, with burial following in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

Mr. Daudelin retired 15 years ago from the General Motors Corp. Truck and Coach Division. He had been employed in the Pontiac plant since 1928, when he came from Canada.

Survivors include his wife, Mina; four sons, Alfred O., Archie L., Ulric and Joseph P.; four brothers; three sisters; 13 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren.

Dr. W. H. Obenau

Services took place Saturday in All Saints Episcopal Church, Pontiac, for Dr. Walter H. Obenau, 65, a psychiatrist who was medical director of Pontiac State Hospital. Dr. Obenau suffered a heart attack in his farm home in Davisburg July 17 and died in Pontiac General Hospital.

He was past president of the Michigan District of the American Psychiatric Association and was recently elected treasurer of the national group. He also was president of the advisory council to the Michigan Board of Nursing and a clinical instructor of psychiatry with Wayne State University Medical College.

He is survived by his wife, May; three daughters, Mrs. Sylvia Taylor, Mrs. Nancy Aiuto and Rebecca; and six-grandchildren.

James B. Patterson

Services for James B. Patterson, a Detroit-area resident for nearly 60 years, took place Monday in Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co., with burial following in White Chapel Cemetery. Mr. Patterson, 77, died Friday in Pontiac General Hospital. His home was at 31541 Pickwick Lane, Birmingham.

Mr. Patterson was a manufacturer's agent in heating equipment and formerly taught at the Detroit Business College.

He is survived by his son, Donald D.; a sister, Mrs. Maude Smith, and two grandchildren.

R. Fuller Callaway

R. Fuller Callaway, 82, of 18510 Glenwood, Lathrup Village died July 17 in Henry Ford Hospital. Funeral services, arranged by Northwest Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co., took place Friday in Covenant Baptist Church, Detroit. Burial was in Woodawn Cemetery.

President of Refrigeration Services, Inc., Mr. Callaway came to Detroit from Georgia in 1916 and joined the National Cash Register Co., as Detroit sales manager. In 1928 he became associated with the Frigidaire Division of General Motors Corp. and was that company's district branch manager when he retired in 1948. He later became president of the Detroit-based Refrigeration Services, Inc.

A member of the Detroit Athletic Club, Mr. Callaway is survived by his wife, Phyllis M.; a daughter, Mrs. Lyman Craig, Jr. of Birmingham; a step-daughter, Mrs. Kenneth Simkins of London, England; a son, Ross H. of Green Lake; two sisters; eight grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Mrs. Ralph Cameron

Mrs. Ralph (Marie) Cameron, 66, of 16026 Junaluska Way, Pacific Palisades, Calif., a former long-time resident of Birmingham, died July 19.

A member of St. James Episcopal Church here, Mrs. Cameron is survived, in addition to her husband, by two sons, Malcolm of Birmingham and Albert of Miami, Fla.; and a daughter, Mrs. Carol Reimer.

Mrs. H. Richardson

Private memorial services for Mrs. Harry (Lois) Richardson of 3370 Franklin Road, Bloomfield Hills, took place July 18 in the Vasu-Lynch Funeral Home, Mrs. Richardson died Jan. 17 in a fire in her home.

In addition to Mr. Richardson, she is survived by three daughters, Jean Elizabeth, Kay Steele and Lynn Ellen.

Mildred Bauslaugh

Mildred K. Bauslaugh, 46, of 4138 Arlington Drive, Beverly Hills, died Saturday in Grace Hospital after a long illness. A graduate of the Detroit Business Institute, Miss Bauslaugh was assistant personnel director for Zonta Club of Detroit.

She is survived by four sisters, Mrs. Arthur Hensler of Berkley; Mrs. Kenneth Steward of Beverly Hills, Mrs. Donald Riemann of Lexington and Mrs. Gerald Oliver of Mt. Clemens. She is also survived by two brothers, Carl and Louis of Port Huron.

Funeral services took place Tuesday in the Vasu-Lynch Funeral Home and at the Shrine of the Little Flower. Burial was in Crosswell, Mich.

Mrs. Robert Fraser

Mrs. Robert (Annie) Fraser, 78, of Royal Oak died July 18 in her home following a prolonged illness. Services took place Saturday in the Harvey A. Neely Funeral Home, with interment following in White Chapel Cemetery.
