Jim Craft Receives Award For Building a Model Car

GORIA JESSUP MA 6-3257

James G. Craft received recognition recently for two hours of diligent work on his model car.

He was awarded second state honors and $100 in the 1963 senior division of the Fisher Body Craftsmen Guild Competition.

This contest was Jim's first try at building model cars from a building model car for a contest. He received a fifth place award for an airplane last year.

Jim is the 17-year-old son of Betty and Stanley Craft of Rock Creek Drive.

THE CHARLES O'NEILS of Spring River were the honored guests at a farewell party held recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Duncan.

The family picnic, attended by about 18 families in the neighborhood, was held at the Duncan home on Pleasant Trail.

Mr. O'Neil's will be making their home in Birmingham.

A brave camper is Mrs. Walter Uhlman of New Jersey.

Mrs. Uhlman and her sons, Walter, 6, and Kurt, 3, stopped last week for a five-day visit with Mrs. Uhlman's sister, Mrs. George Cummings of Hickory leaf.

The three Uhlmans left on Monday to continue their travels through Yellowstone and on to California to visit another sister.

MR. AND MRS. Al Dickemper and their children, Margaret, Stephen and Jean, of St. Louis, Mo., will arrive Sunday to be the houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. E. Farrell Binder of Autumn Lane.

The Dickempers will remain in the area for the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Stan Craft of Rock Creek Drive returned recently from Middletown, Ohio, where they attended the 30-year high school class reunion of Mr. Craft.

Mrs. Craft also attended the same high school, but graduated the year following Mr. Craft.

MR. AND MRS. R. F. Neilson of Waycross Road have returned home following a cruise to Georgian Bay.

The Neilsons left on July 3 and returned on the 21st.

They were accompanied by their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith of Detroit.

Back in their Redwood Blvd home is the John S. Bartley family.

The Bartleys and their three children vacationed at Silver Lake for the past two weeks.

Local Families Return From Summer Vacations

By ELIZABETH VAN LOAN MI 7-3234

Township families who took early summer vacations are pouring back into town from points as far-flung as the West and East coasts.

Back from a trip to Santa Barbara, Calif., is the Keith Spriggel family of Kenmoor Road, Brent.

En route to the coast Mr. and Mrs. Spriggel and their children, Candace, Mark and Brent, toured the Badlands, Mt. Rushmore and Yellowstone National Park.

IN SANTA BARBARA, they visited Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Sutton, former residents of Sunnycrest Drive, who moved to Calif. about a year ago.

Old friends will be pleased to learn that Robert Sutton, a graduate of Groves High School, has been accepted by the U. S. Naval Academy and is at Annapolis.

Soon after their return the Spriggels had as a guest for a week's stay, his brother, F. E. Spriggel, Colleen, Patrick and Timothy Noonan of Pebbleshire Road, Balmoral Heights, returned with their parents on July 14 from a two-week vacation on Cape Cod, where they were the guests of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Noonan, of Harwichport.

ALSO BACK on Pebbleshire Road are Mr. and Mrs. George Holges and their six children. They spent two weeks at their cottage near Clare.

On July 13 the Eddy and Myers families of New England Estates returned from a two-week stay on Lake Leelanau.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Eddy and their five children of Newland Drive E. and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Myers and their five children of Portland Court had adjoining cottages at Au-She-Gun Landing.

Also returning on the 13th were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brinkman with their children, Craig and Joanne, of 5470 Bloomfield Glen.

In Des Moines, Iowa, they visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Richards and Mrs. R. E. Brinkman.

From Iowa, they motored through Wisconsin and the Upper Peninsula, stopping off at Houghton and Tahquamenon Falls.

The elder Mrs. Brinkman accompanied her son and his family on the return trip and will stay on for a visit.

THE KIRKWOOD Improvement Association, organized in April, held a street dance Saturday night for the approximately 100 homeowners comprising the subdivision.

The get-together was staged on Kingsmill Drive. Loutspeckers, hooked up to several houses Hague, Netherlands.

Mr. Carpenter has four children by his previous marriage to the late Karin Carlson Carpenter Robert B. Jr., John W., Kristin A. and Charles A. Carpenter. After a short honeymoon, the couple will return to their new home at 564 Overhill, Birmingham, Michigan.
