Bridal Pair At Home In Chicago

Lois Ann McKimmon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James D. McKimmon of Willow Lane, Birmingham, spoke her marriage vows June 29 to Kenneth Paul Christian, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth P. Christian of Junction City, Kan.

Following the double ring ceremony in Holy Name Church, a reception was given at Rotunda Inn. A full-length gown of white silk organza was chosen by the bride for her wedding. It was fashioned with short sleeves, a scoop neckline and a full skirt accented by a white lace applique embroidered in seed pearls which matched the pearls on the cap from which her shoulder-length veil fell. Her bouquet was of white roses and daisies; her only jewelry a string of pearls, gift of the bridegroom.

JUDITH McKimmon was her sister's maid of honor, while Renny Lee Christian, sister of the bridegroom, was flower girl. Bridesmaids included Denise McKimmon, another sister; Nancy Slattery of Pittsburgh, Pa.; Nancy Deddes and Sharon Fierst of La Grange Park, Ill.

They all wore blue and white checked silk organza and carried blue and white daisies.

Terry Christian was best man for his brother, and sealing the guests were Dave McKimmon, brother of the bride; Thomas Riley of Oak Park, Ill. Patrick Herick of Fremont, O.; Arthur Wondrasek of LaGrange, Ill. The latter threesome all attend Loyola University and are fraternity brothers of the bridegroom. Two other fraternity brothers, Hugh Bell of Chicago and Peter Patrick of Oak Park, served the mass.

FOLLOWING A wedding trip through Canada, the couple is at home in Chicago. Both will continue their studies at Loyola, expecting to be graduated next June.

Among out-of-town guests at the wedding was the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Basil McElroy of Danville, O.
