

The Birmingham Eccentric

Thursday, July 25, 1963

It is a real fact of life that the more distractions one has the less he is able to direct his time and thoughts to the development of his "inner self." The barriers this world thus sets up between confusion, selfishness, vanity, etc., and his growth toward "... the peace that passeth understanding" are many, and high. A nation so distracted eventually loses its way; security gives way to an unhappy insecurity.

Birmingham-Bloomfield members of the Junior Symphony Association are as hard-working volunteer group as any in the area, but once a year they take time out for a day devoted strictly to fun. Traditionally, activities take place on the spacious grounds of the David Wirth home on Charles Lane, Franklin, and include swimming (which gets under way as early as 10:30 a.m.), cocktails and luncheon. Members are asked to bring guests to this particular party, with an eye to swelling next year's roster.

ASSISTING MRS. WIRTH as hostesses last week were Mrs. Harry J. Niederlander, just back from a two weeks' vacation in Florida and sporting a striking head-start on summer tan; Mrs. Edward J. Bure whose new (to us, anyway) coif is as smart as it's becoming; Mrs. Robert Lowry, Mrs. James F. Martin, Mrs. Donald J. Buchman, who boasts the friendliest smile in B'ham; Mrs. George A. Duke, Jr., Mrs. R. Hamilton White, Mrs. Theodore Peterson and Mrs. Dale O. Miller. Coming over from Grosse Pointe for the party were Mrs. William N. Montgomery, Mrs. Richard H. Campbell, Mrs. Stewart W. Pond, Mrs. Charles E. Getler.

On Tour

Daughter Born

Sharon and Teri Seibert, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Seibert of Bloomfield Hills, sailed June 19 on the Queen Elizabeth for a month's tour of Europe. Among countries they are visiting are England, Belgium, Holland and Germany.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kahn Butzel announce the birth of a daughter, Laura Elizabeth, born June 27 at Cambridge, Mass. Mrs. Butzel is the former Brenda Sosland of Kansas City.

CURRENTLY THERE are approximately 135 members who come each day to enjoy (free of charge) such activities as bridge lessons Tuesdays and Thursdays, with Mrs. William Bronsing donating her time and talent to teach; a B. Siegel-sponsored grooming class Friday at 3:15 p.m. on the patio of Seaholm's pool, and a fashion show Thursday, Aug. 8, at 3:15 p.m.

A further activity being planned is the "Starlight Swing," a dance to be held Aug. 2 (rain date, Aug. 9) with the Downbeats, one of the winners of the Combo Playoff, providing the music. The dance, from 9 to 12 p.m., will be preceded by swimming for those interested. Dress will be casual.

COMMITTEE MEMBERS include Rick Moxley and Maria Bruno, co-chairmen; Don LaBelle, Gwen Bronsing, Janet Gonyea and Rob and Ruth Letero.
