

Mom Made It—Right to the Top!

by MARTI CAHN
MI 6-2890

Mrs. Arthur Lake and thirteen-year-old son Mark had fun on their recent three-day New York sightseeing trip. "Mom, you can do it! Think how proud you will be to tell your friends in Birmingham," were Mark's words of encouragement to his mother on their climb to the top of the Statue of Liberty (Beth Lake made it all the way). Additional adventures included a tour of the United Nations Building during a session, a three-hour boat ride around Manhattan Island, subway rides, living high in the sky (they were on the forty-second floor of the Americana Hotel) and a helicopter trip from Manhattan to Idlewild.

The two returned to their Tibury Road home long enough to repack suitcases and head north with Mr. Lake, Mr. and

LOCALITIES AT CAMP HIWATHA

Mrs. Jack Klarr and daughters, Kate and Sally, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sheppard with daughter, Karen. The group stayed at the Lakes' cabin on Thunder Bay River.

All took in visitor's day at Terry Barr's (Birmingham resident, member of the Detroit Lions) Camp Hiwatha for boys at Comus. Campers Jerry Lake, David Sheppard and Gunnar Klarr greeted their families with thrilling reports of camp life which included football practice with such celebrities as Joe Schmidt, Ron Kramer and Earl Morrow, all members of the Detroit Lions Team.

MRS. AUSTIN CONRAD of Burning Bush, Mrs. John C. Palmer of Middle Belt Road, Mrs. Stanley J. Rolson (she is Mrs. Conrad's sister) and Mrs. Harold Anderson of Dayton were hostesses aboard the SS Queen Elizabeth for tea & champagne before their departure July 17.

Among the host of friends attending the gala celebration were Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Dunlap (their son is married to Norma Palmer's daughter) who had honored the travelers on the preceding night at a pool-side cocktail and dinner party in their New Cannon Conn. home.

Michigan bon voyage parties in honor of Mrs. Conrad and Mrs. Palmer were numerous. Dr. and Mrs. Lester Backus (Mrs. B. is Norma's sister) hosted a family farewell cocktail and supper party for fourteen; Mrs. Joseph P. Stapchinskas, Birmingham, and Mrs. Fred Wittick, of Detroit, were co-hostesses at a luncheon and card party at the Oakland Hills Country Club. The traveling foursome will visit England, France, Germany, Italy, Switzerland, Austria, Sweden and Denmark via chauffeur-driven automobile during their seven-week trip.

ter Linda have returned to their Dakota Circle home from a five-week European vacation, which included a ten-day stay at the Hilton Hotel in Rome. They were in Rome for the coronation of Pope Paul VI.

Linda is convinced that it is a small world. During one of her frequent visits to the hotel swimming pool she met two former Birmingham pals, Janet and Carol Christie, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Christie. The Christie family are living at the Hilton Hotel until the completion of their new Rome residence.

Mrs. Vincent J. Gilleo invited Hamilton Road neighbors and previous neighbors of Westwood Drive to her home for morning coffee and to meet Mrs. Benjamin Thom, new Chelton Road resident (Bloomfield Village) formerly of Norwich Road, Birmingham.

Among the twenty guests were Mrs. Thomas Hanson, Mrs. Franklin Roberts, Mrs. Don Wright, Mrs. Ed Hoagland, Mrs. Lee Biske, Mrs. Lawrence Beck, Mrs. Robert Gray, Mrs. Ed Shaper, Mrs. Maurice Garwood, Mrs. Guilford Christopher, Mrs. William Saeffkow, Mrs. Lambert Spiane, Mrs. Bruce Emmert and Mrs. Lee DeNike.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN S. COPPIN were hosts at a dinner party in their Echo Road home in honor of Mrs. Orson C. Crocker, newly-elected president of St. Dunstan's. Mr. Coppin is the outgoing president.

Among the guests were newly-elected and former board members, including Mr. and Mrs. Stephen F. Booth, Mr. and Mrs. William B. Saunders, Mr. and Mrs. Jervis B. McMechan, Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Page, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hendrick, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Bahr, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Remington, Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Smith, Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Selover.

The George Wellington Smith home in Franklin Village is the setting for St. Dunstan's annual members picnic tomorrow night. It will be a barbecue-by-the-pool.

NOTES ON NEIGHBORHOOD DOINGS:

It was a triple celebration at the William K. Saeffkow residence Sunday: The twenty-fourth wedding anniversary for Marge and Bill; the fifteenth anniversary of daughter, Susan, and an eighty-third birthday celebration for Carl F. Saeffkow (Bill's father). The senior Saeffkows came from Cleveland for the celebration.

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Richardson, Jr. of N. Glengarry Road entertained at a pool and supper party recently for their houseguests, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cornell of San Mateo, Calif., (friends from mutual service in the U. S. Navy). And Donna Richardson, recently returned from the Montessano School, Gstaad, Switzerland, entertained for her classmate and house guest Melinda Jones of Santa Monica, Calif., at a pool and Swiss-fondue party for forty guests.

Donna came home from Switzerland with pleasant memories of the Alps and chalets and (most practical) the recipe for the famous fondue.

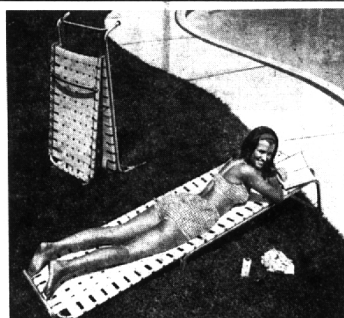

Mrs. William M. Bullock and daughter, Paul, were in Kent, O., to visit Mrs. B's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Graham.

THE BEVERLY Hills Athletic Club's swim team, members of the Northwest Suburban swim meet, participated in their second meet on July 18.

Birth Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Donald A. Nummer (Julie Schmidt of Birmingham) of Pierce St., announce the birth of a son, Donald A., Jr. on July 20. The baby's maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Burl Schmidt, Jr., also of Birmingham, celebrated their twenty-third wedding anniversary on their grandson's birthday.

Candlelight Ceremony Unites Pair

Marrie-Roxie Rundle and Bruce Harold Crowell were united in marriage at a double-ring candlelight ceremony at Grandale Presbyterian Church, Detroit.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald F. Rundle of Ann Arbor, formerly of Birmingham. He is the son of the Rev. and Mrs. Stephen C. Crowell of St. Louis, Mich.

The bridegroom's father officiated at the ceremony.

THE BRIDE chose a silk organza over taffeta dress with a chapped train. Lace applique and seed pearls were on the front of the gown. A small pearl crown secured the bride's bouffant veil. She carried white roses and ivy.

Mary Hawley of Grosse Ile was maid of honor. Julie Ann Rundle and Sherrit Linn Rundle of Palatine, Ill., sisters of the bride, and Susan McGuire of Birmingham were bridesmaids.

The bridesmaids dresses were light blue silk organza. They carried bouquets of lime green fugi mums.

DONALD R. Crowell assisted his brother as best man. Groomsmen were Stephen E. Crowell, brother of the bridegroom, and Richard Dykes and Jerry King of Lapeer.

A church reception immediately followed the ceremony.

The couple will spend the summer in Lapeer and then make their home in Ann Arbor, where the bridegroom is attending the University of Michigan medical school.

The bride is a graduate of Michigan State University.
