A Slick Suggestion

In the event that too much oil polish has collected on some of your furniture, mix a quarter of a cup of vinegar with a half-cup of water, dip a soft cloth in this mixture, and rub the furniture with it. Dry immediately with a soft cloth.

B'ham Women Back From Vocal Camp

Two Birmingham-area women have just returned from a three-week session of Vocal Camp held on the campus of Westminster Choir College in Princeton, N. J.

They are Martha Bryan, 833 Fox Run, Birmingham, and Janet Lekich, 2501 Warwick Drive, Bloomfield Hills.

Director James C. McKeever, director of the vocal school reported a capacity group of 240 young people attended the camp from all over the United States.

Many were on scholarship from their schools and churches because of their musicianship and participation in their local choir programs.

* * *

THE YOUNG people had intensive training in choral, vocal and conducting technics and eurythmics.

The curriculum was enriched through evening concerts which included recitals by Mrs. Joan Lippincott, organist; David Wells, cellist; Joseph Kovacs, violinist—all members of the regular Westminster Choir College Faculty; and by attending a concert at Robin Hood Dell in Philadelphia July 16.

The girls have watched a hen hatch baby chicks, have tended a rabbit and six babies, ridden the camp burro, caught countless turtles and watched them perform in a pool built especially for them.

Check Driver's License Before Leaving on Trip

Getting ready to go on a motoring vacation?

"Better check to make sure that your driver's license is valid or will be in effect until you get back."

That is the advice of Secretary of State James M. Hare who last year issued 1,738,586 operator's licenses to Michigan motorists.

"Of this number, several hundred thousand failed to renew their driving permit before their triennial registration date," Hare said.

"It seems that a great many people are unaware that they can start the renewal process 90 days before their birthday deadline."

* * *

IF YOUR LICENSE runs out this year and you have a birthday between now and the middle of October, you can apply for your new 3-year license at once.

It is possible to renew operator's licenses in any authorized police or sheriff's office in Michigan.

So, if you are a Michigan resident on vacation elsewhere in the state, better take a look at your license. If it has expired, apply immediately to the nearest enforcement officer authorized to renew your driving privilege.

IF YOU PLAN to leave for a motoring trip which will take you outside of Michigan, you had better check to see if your license will run out before you return.

Does Jim Hare have any trouble remembering to get his license renewed? Well, sometimes. This year he checked in a month before his deadline.

Hare will celebrate his 53rd birthday on July 31. The license he applied for a couple of weeks ago will be mailed before that date to his home address, properly validated with the signature of the Michigan's Secretary of State: James M. Hare.
