

MRS. SMITH

Bridal Pair Takes Trip To Bermuda

A trip to Bermuda followed the July 27 marriage of Myrna Lou Moxley and John Peter Smith at First Presbyterian Church of Birmingham.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Moxley of Birmingham. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Henry Smith Jr. of Grosse Pointe.

Hand-clipped Chantilly lace overlaid the imported silk organza gown. The French illusion veil was secured by a silk organza leaf spray. She carried Amazon lilies and stephanotis with ivy.

MRS. ROBERT G. Harris of Birmingham was the matron of honor. Judith Hessel of Grosse Pointe, Mrs. Charles Eldridge III of Ann Arbor and Mrs. Thomas W. Smith attended as bridesmaids.

They wore turquoise silk linen dresses and carried bouquets of white miniature carnations. Both Moxley and Linda Thorne were junior bridesmaids.

Thomas W. Smith of Grosse Pointe assisted the bridegroom as best man. Seating guests were Richard Moxley and Ralph W. Moxley II, brothers of the bride, William H. Yates and David L. Wigton of Grosse Pointe and Paul H. Wehmeier of Ann Arbor.

Have You Met . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Michael W. Chitty of 6559 Spruce Drive and their three children Robert 9, Diana, 6, Susan, 5, who moved to above address one month ago from Summit, N.J. Chitty is in the International Division of the Ford Motor Co. An outdoor man, he enjoys fishing, hunting, golfing and many athletic sports. Mrs. Chitty says she too enjoys most of the sports and the outdoor activities that her husband does. Newest member of their family is an English sheepdog affectionately named "Jemi" which Mr. Chitty gave to his wife for their 11th anniversary a short time ago.

Woodchoppers Rosemary Grady Ball Planned Wed at Holy Name

Shades of the 1940's! Forest Lake Country Club is turning the clubhouse into one gigantic dance hall, complete with revolving spotlight, for its Woodchoppers' Ball tomorrow night.

None other than that old wood-chopper himself, Woody Herman, and his 16-piece show band will provide the music.

Dancing is scheduled to start at 9:30 p.m., and some time during the evening, Woody will organize a jam session.

IF THE WEATHER is favorable, and that seems a good bet in this summer of the great drought, tables will be set up outside, and there will be dancing on the pool deck under the stars and spunkies.

On the dance committee are the Harold J. Halls, William Coreys, Andy Parks and Neil Mitchies.

N. J. Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Fiske and their two daughters, Cecily and Pam, of Franklin Lakes, N. J., formerly of Birmingham, arrived Saturday to spend two weeks visiting Mrs. Fiske's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Bliss Finlay of Bloomfield Village. On Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Finlay were hosts at a family party honoring the visitors.

At a double ring ceremony solemnized July 27 in Holy Name Church, Rosemary Mercier Grady, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Grady of Lakeview Road, Birmingham, became the bride of James Conrad Leszczynski, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard L. Leszczynski of Grosse Pointe.

The Rev. Thomas E. Grady, brother of the bride, officiated at the nuptial high mass, which was followed by a reception at Bowman's Farm Gardens.

MRS. LESZCZYNSKI

veiling and carried bouquets of Virginia pink carnations and ivy.

LOUIS ADAMS served as best man, and seating the guests were Dr. Thomas Sullivan and Dr. John Grouper.

Following a wedding trip to Montreal, Quebec and New England, the couple will be at home in Birmingham.
