

Andrea Stickel Named Hostess

Andrea L. Stickel of 2898 Stan-eyridge, Birmingham, has been selected to serve as a hostess and guide during the special orientation period for new students at Monticello College this fall.

For approximately two months she will have the responsibility of guiding new students assigned to her.

Her duties will include familiarizing these girls with the Monticello campus, personally seeing that they know the location of their classes and acquainting them with the student activities in which they may participate.

BLOOMFIELD SOUTH Shower Honors Bride's Mother

By ELEANOR NELSEN MI 7-9054

Mrs. Raymond Reid opened her home at 2820 Farmingdale for her friends, all former newcomers who have banded together in a group called the "Traumas" for the purpose of what they termed a "zany" shower.

The reason for it being different was that it was given for the mother of the bride.

Guest of honor for the day was Mrs. Kenneth Wisby, whose daughter Susan is being married on Aug. 17 at Christ Church Cranbrook.

Rickie, and sister, Lori, in the family circle.

Visiting at the time of his arrival were Mr. Vastine's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Edson of Little Rock, Ark., who were here for a three-week stay.

SEVERAL YOUNGSTERS in the area are making names for themselves these days.

Julie Dale, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Dale of 4555 Pickering, was a winner in the fifth annual novice swim meet held July 24 at the Lower Huron Metropolitan Park.

Karen Roth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Roth of 640 S. Cranbrook Road, was the first girl from the Birmingham area to place in the Detroit Metropolitan Youth Fitness Meet. Karen won a first place in the running broad jump.

MRS. GREEN

Newlyweds Make Home In Franklin

Marilyn Jo Martin was united in marriage to Peter John Green on July 27 at the First Presbyterian Church of Mr. Pleasant.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Martin of Mt. Pleasant. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Green of Franklin.

The bride selected a Bianchi gown of peau de soie, designed with a scoop neck and short sleeves. The Alconon lace bodice was beaded with pearls and sequins and the belle skirt complemented her full chapel train. A half hat of matching lace secured her bouffant veil of imported illusion. She carried an arrangement of phalaenopsis orchids and stephanotis.

SUSAN Breidenstein of Mt. Pleasant attended the bride as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Richard Groff of Bay City, Suzanne Sawyer of Birmingham and Elizabeth Green, sister of the bridegroom.

The attendants wore romance blue organza sheaths with floor length overskirts. They carried presentation bouquets of pale pink carnations.

WARREN S. Sumner III of Bloomfield Hills assisted the bridegroom as best man. Groomsmen were Edward Estes and Robert Stephenson of Birmingham and Hugh M. Goodman Jr. of Signal Mountain, Tenn. Michael Martin and John Green, brothers of the bride and bridegroom respectively, were junior ushers.

A reception at Mt. Pleasant Country Club immediately followed the ceremony. The newlyweds will make their home in Franklin upon their return from a wedding trip to Northern Michigan and Canada.
