

if the ROSE MAN wants to plan your vacation trip... hide the map!

...he can't find his way out of town. Yet, to your neighbor, your neighbor's neighbor and families everywhere, this fellow is an outright hero.

In fact he's almost becoming a legend. Strange? Not when you think about it. For instance, after he shows up, there's no more need to keep paying out good money for those "kill 'em quick", by guess and by golly insect powder you've been fruitfully using.

Rose Home Service lets you relax and enjoy your home without sharing it with nasty ants in the kitchen, moths in the closet or mice in the basement.

And, no more worries about the dog or the kids sampling any highly toxic pest powders that might be spread around.

Even in homes clean enough to eat off the floor, roaches smuggle their way in. And unless you're smarter than they are, they stay.

That's where the Rose Man shines! He's a skilled, professional pest control expert. On regular inspections he provides preventive protection as well as immediate control, all for only pennies per day. You just can't buy his knowledge, his scientific methods and modern materials at the corner store!

Call the Rose Man today and be safe!

in the 12th inning, 4-1, on one hit and three errors. Rafferty's single scored the deciding run. May's gave up no hits in the final three innings.

IN THE second game Saturday, Birmingham squeaked by previously unbeaten Southfield-Lathrup, 8-7, to gain a berth in the finals.

Rafferty led off with a homer in the third and Collins blasted his second grand slam of the series to put Birmingham in front, 7-3, at the end of four.

Southfield roared back in the fifth to score three more on two home runs—one of which was the second of the game for catcher Mike Haley with a man on. Baughman clouted the tally.

The losers' final tally came on another homer by Strattmatt to tie the game, 7-7, in the seventh.

IN THE eighth inning, Rafferty walked and moved to second on a fielder's choice. Collins rapped a sharp single past second base, scoring Rafferty with the winning run.

Rafferty went the distance on the mound for Birmingham and earned the victory. Art Kale worked behind the plate every game for the local Pony team.

Guiding the two teams were Manager Bob Gleason and Coach Ed McCann of Birmingham and Arnie Schlechter and Russ Ellison of Southfield-Lathrup.

More Medals for Sue

Sue Smith, 13-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Smith, 3060 Chickering Lane, Bloomfield Hills, was Pontiac Swim Club's lone winner in the third annual age group swimming meet last week at Lower Huron Metro Park near Belleville. Lifeguard James Bishop presents a first place medal to Sue, who placed first in the 40-yard backstroke and first in the 80-yard freestyle for girls ages 13-14.

on a single by Buzz Downey, a sacrifice bunt by Carl Gromek, and a single by Jim Angell.

On the mound, Angell was in fine form allowing only three widely scattered hits. He was helped considerably by catcher Dick Balgorneth who worked brilliantly behind the plate in both games of the doubleheader.

Excellent team direction by Starr Peam and Andy Anderson was highly instrumental in the success of the Birmingham team in this crucial series.
