Guests on the Sunny Side

Bunched around Bud Guest, at microphone, center, are 10 of the 12 WJR staff members "guest" starting from "The Sunny Side of the Street," 8:15-8:30 a.m., Monday through Saturday, during Bud's vacation Aug. 5 through 17. They are (from left, front row) Karl Haas, director of fine arts; Guest, 3205 1/2 Bingham Lane, Birmingham; Murray, women's director, of Birmingham. Middle row: Charley Park, chief announcer; A. Friedenthal, chief engineer; and Jimmy Launce, host of "Showcase." Back row: Bob Reynolds, sports director; Harold Lake, record librarian; Reg Merri-dew, program director; Jay Roberts, host of "Night Flight"; and Frank Tomlinson, editor, of Birmingham, and Jack Kessler, production director of Birmingham, not pictured, also broadcast for Bud. Each guest will relate Sunny Side experiences from their own departments.

Cali Group Invited for County Visit

Six community leaders from Cali, Columbia, a South American city of 800,000 people, are expected to arrive for a two-week visit in Oakland County Oct. 1. Last May Delos Hamlin chairman of the County Board of Supervisors, and four other representatives of Oakland County were guests in Cali, to help improve economic conditions. U.S. Rep. William S. Broomfield suggested the experiment as a practical means of supplying foreign aid. The U.S. State Department has underwritten expenses of both groups in the exchange.

The Cali group will study local methods of economic development, education and government. Five of the South Americans invited have already accepted the invitation. A sixth guest has not replied yet. Hamlin was accompanied on the trip to Columbia by Oakland University Chancellor D. B. Varner, George Catlin, who heads a area industrial development for the Detroit Edison Co., and George Skrubh, county planning director. Bloomfield Hills architect Mark T. Jaroszewicz, who lives at 4204 Bitterroot Hill Drive, Birmingham, also made the trip. An ex-official committee member, he paid his own travel expenses.
