

Bride-Elect Wears Heirloom Lace Veil

A full-length veil of heirloom Belgium rose-pointe lace was worn by Linda Elizabeth Stevenson for her marriage to Donald Bruce Murphy at Epiphany Lutheran Church, Detroit, Saturday afternoon.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John K. Stevenson of N. Glengary Road, Birmingham. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Murphy of Chappaqua, N. Y.

Miss Stevenson's heirloom veil was previously worn by her mother; by two aunts, Mrs. Robert C. Vanderkloot of Bloomfield Township and Mrs. Paul M. McKenney of Bloomfield Hills; and by her sister, Mrs. John Howard Wert of Birmingham.

THE BRIDE'S Balenciaga gown was of candlelight peau de soie accented with Alencon lace and encrusted with tiny seed pearls. It was fashioned with a chapel train, portrait neckline and elbow-length sleeves.

Miss Stevenson carried a small circular bouquet of miniature gardenias.

MRS. MURPHY

Mrs. Wert attended her sister as matron of honor. Patricia Hunter of Johnstown, Pa., served as her maid of honor.

The bridesmaids included Karen Vanderkloot of Bloomfield Township and Lisa Knudsen of Bingham Farms, both cousins of the bride; Maureen Murphy, sister of the bridegroom; Karen Van Fleet and Linda Wessels, both of Birmingham; and Mrs. William Knox Kinlaw, Jr., of Chapel Hill, N. C.

THE BRIDESMAIDS and honor attendants were dressed in matching floor-length Carlin gowns of saffron cotton-ottoman with sashes of wood green velvet ribbon.

Dior bows of matching green velvet were worn in their hair, and they carried small circular bouquets of yellow gladioli.

The bridegroom asked Bruce LePage of Peekskill, N. Y., to be his best man. The ushers were Robert Stevenson, brother of the bride; David Rollins of Scarisdale, N. Y.; Robert Judd of New York City; Douglas Rosenthal of Great Neck, L. I.; and John Sheldon and E. Nicholson Stewart, Jr., both of Chappaqua.

FOR HER DAUGHTER'S reception, Mrs. Stevenson wore a Roman costume of champagne silk alencon. Mrs. Murphy's gown was of ice blue silk linen with chalk beading encircling the neckline.

Following the reception at the Detroit Golf Club, the new-weds left for a wedding trip to Cape Cod. The new Mrs. Murphy donned a Dior suit of pink cotton tweed, with which she wore lone accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Murphy will make their home in New York City.

Ex-resident Wed in Ohio

Lois Elizabeth McLeese, formerly of Birmingham, was united in marriage with Hubert J. Frebault Aug. 3 in the Our Lady of Victory Church, Columbus, Ohio.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. Hugh McLeese of Scarisdale, N.Y., and the late Mrs. McLeese. Her husband is the son of Mrs. Francis P. Frebault of Columbus and the late Mr. Frebault.

MISS McLEESE'S honor attendant was Mrs. Willis Henry of Piquon, Mich. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Robert Saffell of Birmingham; the bride's sister, Mrs. John Laidlaw of Mt. Clemens; and Mrs. David Lowman of Ann Arbor.

Serving his brother as best man was Francis P. Frebault of Hoffman Estates, Ill. Ushers were Francis J. Frebault; John P. Chagrin Falls; and Donald McLeese, the bride's brother, of Glen Ellyn, Ill.

The couple is taking a wedding trip to Michigan. After Aug. 20 they will reside in Barrington, Ill., where Mr. Frebault will teach speech and drama in the Barrington High School.

Fillies Play Golf at Doe Derby Day

"Four-three-two . . . and the blast of a shotgun was the signal to start 40 fillies over the long and treacherous track of the Oakland Hills Country Club's golf course Aug. 2.

The event was the annual Doe Derby Day . . . a best-ball of four golf tournament.

In the winner's circle from Cornish's Green and Gold Stables was the well-trained thoroughbred team entry of Jane (Pat's Pre-rogative) Cornish, Joanne (Jim's Whim) Gunn, Babe (Private Stock) Stock, and Barb (Long Overdue) Stockmeyer.

Susie Hogan decorated each with a colorful flower horsehoe necklace.

PLACE POSITION went to Ann Bauer, Ellen Rolph, Teddy Jolly and Madeleine Matthews—out of Bauer's Purple and Gold Stables.

A photo finish for show position declared the winners to be Daisy Staphinaska, Jane Thompson, Evelyn Carlson and Joan Eaton from Staphinaska's Gold and White Stables.

Immediately following the race, the "horses" and grandstand spectators gathered at the "Turf Club" for cocktails, luncheon and the presentation of awards.

Committee members who planned Doe Derby Day were Charlotte Ewald, Jean Loofbourrow, Susie Hogan, Pat Jones and Mary-Lee Kinehart.
