The hikers along the Appalachian Trail have beckoned to Mrs. Fred Cornett and son Donald of Hickory Heights Drive, to join them on a week's hike through the Blue Ridge Mountains.

The trail extends from Maine through Georgia. They left Saturday for Gettysburg, where they will be joined by nieces and a nephew, Sylvia and Harriet McNeil of Washington, D.C., and newly commissioned 2nd Lieut. Stewart Mullin of Roanoke, and will begin the hike at that point.

After a week on the trail with hundreds of other hikers the group plans to drop out for a week of swimming at the Thunderbird at Virginia Beach.

A group of North Adams youths are enjoying life at Camp Nissokone this summer. Roland Starr of Oakhill Drive, John Kingscott of Orchard Hill Drive and Phil Lyman of Hickory Bend Road are counselors-in-training at the camp for an eight-week period.

The James Browns have just returned home from a week's journey to Nantucket and Boston, Mass., to visit relatives, the Ray Browns.

The Robert Lees of Myddleton Road were weekend houseguests at a summer home near Ludington, Mich. Their hosts were Myddleton Road neighbors, the John Moravvas.

THE PREVIOUS week the Lees and Southgate friends, the Walter Stoviks, spent the week at a Casaville, Mich. resort. Before the end of August the Lees plan on a trip to New Hampshire for golf and swimming.

Joplin, Mo., was the vacation destination of Mrs. William Joyce and children, Leonard and Ginny, of Whittier Drive. They visited the Leonard Otts, parents of Mrs. Joyce, during their two-week stay. Joyce joined his family there for a short stay.
