to the continent and came back on the S. S. United States. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gray and their children, David, Susan and Steven, of Idlewild Road spent two weeks at their summer cottage in Sea Isle, N. J.

After their return last week, they had visitors from Baltimore, Md., Mrs. Jean Goetz and Miss Mary Hammer.

ON AUGUST 4 the Don Batty and Bill Higgins families returned from a week's vacation at Campbell House in Lexington, Ky. Lenice Horaski was five years old on Aug. 7, but celebrated her birthday a week before while visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Hinchey, in Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio.

She was with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Boraski, and brother, John Adam, of Westmor Road.

THE HAROLD TONERS of Kingsmill Drive left yesterday for their new home in Bayside, a suburb of Milwaukee. They had spent 14 months in Birmingham after their transfer here from Pittsburgh, Pa.

The Newcomers Golf League is losing one of its finest golfers. Jean ranked second in a field of 120 women.

The Toners have a son, William, who is a student at Kent State University.

Jean Scholl Will Attend A Leadership Workshop

By ELEANOR NELSEN
MI 7-0056

Jean Carol Scholl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Scholl of Knollwood Circle, is looking forward to her trip to Chicago.

Jean will leave on Saturday and will be a member of a group from Marian High School who will attend a leadership workshop held at Loyola University.

The girls will be accompanied by Sister Clare Estelle from Marian and will be under the auspices of the Student's Spiritual Council.

Approximately 12 girls will travel together and stay at the Conrad Hilton while in Chicago. A similar group will travel to Davenport, Iowa, and will be accompanied by Sister Marie Suzanne.

JEAN IS secretary general for the United Nations organization of her school. Linda Gibson is president of the school club.

While Jean will be going west, her brothers are spending their vacations up north.

Michael is vacationing for two weeks up Port Huron way while John is up at Onaway furnishing a cabin which he intends to use during the deer hunting season.

WHEN J. V. Sanders of Knollwood Circle planned a fishing trip, he included his son Steve and Steve's friend, Steve Howard.

The trio started off July 17 and drove north. They were picked up and flown into Camp Kitchini in Canada where they spent three days.

They were accompanied into the wilderness by an Indian guide—and wilderness it was, with the nearest paved road 104 miles away.

The fellows had a successful fishing trip and brought home the necessary catch to prove it.

A GROUP OF 12 women gathered at the home of Mrs. James Ashlock of Middlebury Lane at 10 a.m. last Friday to have a surprise baby shower for "Grandma".

Guest of honor for the day was Mrs. Henry Gluckstad, whose daughter, Mrs. James Lettitz of Lansing, recently gave birth to a baby.

The gifts were novel and useful, but definitely all for Grandma. It was a busy day for Mrs. Ashlock, because that same evening she was expecting out-of-town guests from Dayton, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Martin.

The Martins are expected to spend several days at the Ashlock home and renew friendships that began when both the families resided in Connecticut.

THE McCOLLS had a ball while Dr. John McColl found it necessary to stay at their home on Dalebrook. Mrs. McColl and the children took off on July 22 for their sixth annual summer spent at Casewille, in the thumb region.

She and her two sisters, Mrs. James Easterday and Mrs. Paul Buker, both of the Detroit area, have taken the same cottage every year.

Their children, totaling ten in number, have a great time swimming and fishing.

The McColls returned home on August 4 to a dad that had missed their presence.

ON WEDNESDAY the Westchester Women's Club held a meeting of their elected board members to set up their calendar of affairs for the coming year.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Edward Collins, 2737 Heathfield.

Philip Weiss of S. Cranbrook Cross spent a week in July as the American delegate to the international meeting of the U.P.A.C. when the organization met in Paris.

It was the second time within three months that Weiss had been in Europe. His wife Helen had accompanied him abroad for a trip that took up most of the month of May.

WEISS'S commitments took them to Israel, Austria, Italy, Germany, Switzerland, England, Sweden and through the Netherlands.

While he made visits to the universities in the different countries, Mrs. Weiss toured the cities sightseeing and shopping. Although not prone to collecting souvenirs, they did bring back several prints and perfume from Paris and glass from Vienna.

The last week in July found their son, Kenneth, flying down to Miami Beach, Fla., where he spent several days visiting with his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Siegel.

AS A PRELUDE to the St. Regis Bob Lo excursion and a round-up for the bus ride to it, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Keating of Jackson Park Drive have invited several of their friends to join them for a cocktail before leaving.

Guests invited to attend are Dr. and Mrs. Robert Nixon, Mr. and Mrs. George Kanan, Mr. and Mrs. David Kioepfer, Mr. and Mrs. Allan G. Campbell Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. William Markley. Others are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Corlin, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Lindsey, Mr. and Mrs. Al Kaline and Mr. and Mrs. Leon Hart.

JOINING the family circle of the Frederick Koenigs of Timber Ridge is young Kyle Christopher, who was born on July 23 at Beaumont hospital. His sister, Kimberly Gaye, is mighty proud of her new brother.

The Murray Forhan family of N. Clunbury are "repeaters" in their choice of vacation areas. For the fifth summer they have spent their relaxation period at Crystal Lake, going the last two weeks of July this year.

THE CHILDREN, Paul, Tim, Kathy and Maureen, find being in the water just great and to add to their enjoyment this year, they tried their hands at sailing.

On June 13, the Harry Whipple family of N. Clunbury began driving eastward for a three-week vacation trip.

Their destination was Portsmouth, N. H., their former home.

After arriving there were many family reunion parties and aunts and uncles had a opportunity to see how the Whipple children, Mark, Matthew, Daniel and Elaine, had grown.

While in the east, the Whipples also stopped in Ossing, N. Y., to visit friends and then toured through Canada and visited Niagara Falls. They arrived home on July 2.

ARRIVING unexpectedly, but none the less welcome, at the Edward Wray home on W. Dartmoor were Mrs. Wray's cousin and her husband. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hammond and their twin daughters, Melanis and Melinda, from Cleveland, Ohio, arrived on July 31 for a three-day visit.
