Behind The Store Fronts

With ANGUS McKELLAR
 E. W. Kurth Real Estate & Insurance Co., formerly located at 290 S. Woodward, is now in new quarters at 1496 S. Woodward, corner of Chapin. (Just north of Post Furniture).
 Barnett (of Bloomfield Fashion), as publicity chairman, and by George McGlennen, of Jacobson's Men's Store, as chairman of special events.

CONSTRUCTION started last week on the new $150,000 Sam Reeves Cities Service station on the NW corner of the Woodward-Thirteen Mile intersection. The land cost an additional $150,000. Ultra-modern, the station will have a glassed-in office in front, which will house the main office of the Sam Reeves Oil Co.

Another glassed-in area at the gas pumps will give foul weather protection for gas pump attendants. The station will have four service stalls and will offer complete automotive repair service, including automatic transmission work.

A WAITING room with TV will also be provided. Reeves is the only Cities Service distributor in Oakland County. He has nine stations in operation and two under construction. A midnight opening date is tentatively scheduled.

Rickey (the Clown of Channel 7) will be at Julius' son-the-Plaza (Maple & Telegraph) to entertain the kids between 1:30 and 3 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 17.

CHRISTMAS shopping is probably not one of the foremost subjects most people have been concerned with lately. But not so with the steering committee for Men's Night in Birmingham, which has been set for Monday, Dec. 9.

According to chairman Bill Wizer, of the Prep Shop, plans are in the works for the biggest and best Men's Night so far.

Bill is assisted by Mary Ellen

Willoughby Promoted by Fisher Body

A top appointment in the Fisher Body Quality Standards Activity was announced recently by K. B. Willoughby, general director of Quality Standards and Service. Named as director of the Quality Standards Activity was Robert J. Bellie, who has been general administrator since 1960. Bellie started with Fisher Body in 1934 as an hourly rate worker at the Lansing plant. A series of various jobs in the production line there led to his promotion as foreman in 1943.

HE WAS TRANSFERRED to the Fisher Body Division service department in 1950 as a field service representative and was made a regional service representative in 1952. Following a brief period in the Quality Standards Department in 1953, Bellie was named chief inspector of the Fleetwood Fisher plant in Detroit.

He returned to Fisher general offices in 1959 where he was promoted to general administrator of Quality Standards.

Bellie resides at 3842 Top View Court, Birmingham.
