No Longer a 'Season'

That the month of June is no longer synonymous with weddings has been abundantly proved this year in Birmingham and Bloomfield, where each week's quota of dewy-eyed brides keeps the social calendar circled with orange blossom 'n' tulle and the whole town stepping to the strains of Lohengrin.

As traditional as the rites themselves was the marriage ceremony Saturday noon at which Lynn Catherine Harcke became the bride of Thomas Cameron Morton. The young couple repeated their vows in St. Bede's Catholic Church, after which a garden reception was given in the home of the bride's mother.

Lynn, who was given in marriage by her uncle, Donald James Crawford of Stamford, Conn., is the daughter of Mrs. James Benedict Harcke of W. Thirteenth Mile Road, and the late Mr. Harcke. Tom is the son of Mrs. John F. McLean, Jr. of Waddington Road, and the late Dr. James A. Morton.

Double Ring Service

The Rev. Fr. Cyril Keating officiated at the double ring ceremony, for which the bride wore a crystal white gown of sheerest silk organza fashioned with a scalloped portrait neckline of Alencon lace, bridal sleeves and a dome-shaped skirt which swept into a chapel train. Her short veil of imported illusion fell from a miniature seed pearl crown and she carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

Patricia Ann Harcke was her sister's maid of honor, and bridesmaids included another sister, Jill Veronica; Jill Sage of Birmingham and Lora Morton, sister of the bridegroom.

Accent on Citron

They were all dressed alike in pale yellow organza over taffeta, the short bouffant skirts banded by midriffs of Alencon lace. Wisps of matching veiling caught to Dior bows fashioned their headpieces and they carried cascades of lime-colored fugi mums.

Garrett Mouw of Birmingham was best man and seating the guests were additional Birminghamites Dennis Gorman, Dennis Hurd and Cary Morton, brother of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Harcke greeted her guests in a Blackwell sheath of green silk shantung accented by a tunic, white piping and tiny cap sleeves. She wore a white pillbox hat and matching Amazon lilies. Mrs. McLean wore an Alencon lace sheath of marigold yellow, a matching whimsy and her flowers were also Amazon lilies.

Following a wedding trip to Bermuda, the newlyweds will make their home in Ann Arbor, where Tom will continue work on his master's degree in business administration. Lynn will complete her senior year at Eastern Michigan University.

Engagement Revealed

Additional romantic news comes from Hammond, Ind., with the announcement that Molly Crumpacker, daughter of the Owen W. Crumpackers of Hammond is engaged to James E. Griffin, son of Mrs. Charles H. Mayne of Bloomfield Hills and the late Winston Kern Griffin.

The news was revealed at a party in the Crumpacker home, at which time the young people also announced they'd set Dec. 30 as the date of their marriage.

The bride-elect, who is a senior at the University of Michigan, attended Hammond High School and Rogers Hall in Lowell, Mass. She is affiliated with Delta Gamma Sorority.

Her fiancé is a graduate of Birmingham High School and received his bachelor of arts degree from U. of M. His fraternity is Sigma Chi.

Following their marriage, the couple will live in Ann Arbor, where the bridegroom-elect is enrolled in law school. Molly will complete her studies and receive her degree in June.

Tehoy's Have Houseguests

The William J. Tehoy's of Bloomfield Hills had as recent houseguests the Rade J. Tepichs and children Susan and Barbara. After leaving, the Tepichs traveled to Lake Placid, N. Y. Mr. and Mrs. Tehoy are now preparing for the visit of Mrs. Eva Tehoy, his mother. Dinners in her honor are being planned.

Celebrate Birthday

An 80th birthday party feted Mrs. Norbert Opp recently at her home on N. Adams, Birmingham. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence D. St. John of South Bend, Ind., and Dr. and Mrs. Cecil Conrad of N. Glenhurst Drive, Birmingham. Mr. and Mrs. Opp are parents of Mrs. St. John and Mrs. Conrad.

Marymount Freshmen Introduced

The Marymount College alumnae of Detroit are having a tea today at the home of Mrs. Hanley Dawson Jr., 500 Hamilton Road, Birmingham. New freshmen and their mothers will be introduced to the alumnae at the tea. The freshmen are Jeanne Marie Carpenter of Grosse Pointe Farms, Susan Bennett of Royal Oak and Linda A.
