Cherie and Teri Siebert Return from European Tour

GLORIA JESSUP
MA 4-3257

Back in their Round Hill Road home following a two-month tour of Europe are Cherie and Teri Siebert. They are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Adam J. Siebert. The young ladies traveled over 8,000 miles seeing England, Belgium, Netherlands, Germany, Switzerland, Italy and France.

One of the highlights of the trip was Teri's 17th birthday celebration at Al Fredo Restaurant in Rome. Teri was given the famous gold fork and spoon, presented to Al Fredo by Douglas Fairbanks Jr. and Mary Pickford, with which to eat Al Fredo's special noodles that made him famous.

TERI WILL BE a senior at the Bloomfield Hills High School in the fall and Cherie will teach at one of the elementary schools in the Bloomfield Hills system.

Also back from the "Discovery 1963, European Tour" is Mrs. Mark H. Martin of Lantern Lane, Foxcroft. She was with a tour group, scheduled by Mr. Centomini of the Oakland Travel Agency of Birmingham, which consisted of 13 members.

They traveled a total of 15,000 miles in 32 days.

THE GROUP went 3,000 miles in a bus which met them at the Hook in Holland after crossing the North Sea from England.

Their driver, Jon Groat of Eindhoven, Holland, spoke five languages which was an invaluable help in crossing the border lines of the 11 countries they visited.

Countries included on the tour were England, Holland, Germany,

Switzerland, Liechtenstein, Austria, Italy, Republic of San Marino Monaco, France and Belgium.

TOUR LEADERS were the Rev. and Mrs. Frank A. Cozadd of Farmington. Others included Dr. and Mrs. Oscar A. Ross of Birmingham, Mr. and Mrs. James Schafer and Mrs. Louis Fishman of Detroit, Beatrice Dood of Pennsylvania and her 81-year-old aunt, Mrs. Alice F. Welcker, a spry 79 years old, both of St. Cloud, Fla., and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Darst of Florida.

The tour got off to a startling beginning, when Darst had his pocket picked the first night in London only a few miles from the group saw the sign saying, "Beware of Pickpockets."

EVERYONE SEEMS to be either coming or going to Europe that is) these days.

Going is Craig Weston, 21-year-old son of Dr. and Mrs. Earl Weston of Furan Drive. He is taking a year out of his college studies to travel to Switzerland, Italy and Greece and then work in Israel for the remainder of the year.

His sister, Lynda, just returned last week from a seven-week tour of Europe with the Michigan Youth Chorale. She leaves for her freshman year at the University of Michigan this week.

Dr. and Mrs. Weston have been traveling also. They returned tired and relaxed from visiting the Al Joldersha (former Birminghamans) at their Westport, Conn. home. They also spent two weeks at Cape Cod, before returning home.

MRS. WILLIAM Neef has returned home with her four sons from her mother's summer home near Marshall, Mich., after spending the summer.

Neef joined the family for a four-day stay last week and then the whole family returned to greet their houseguests from Lake Wales, Fla., Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Neef.

The Edwin Neefs visited with their son and daughter-in-law over last weekend and then continued on their travels to see their daughter in Milwaukee.

HOUSEGUESTS of the Joe T. Atkins family of Burning Tree Drive, Still Meadow, have been the James Bambergers and their two children, John and Jane, of Columbus, Ind.

The Bambergers have been visiting with the Atkins and getting acquainted with the area while they awaited occupancy of their new home on Kings Mill Drive in Kirkwood.

ANOTHER NEWCOMER to the area is David Jencks Knights, who was born to Dr. and Mrs. Edwin M. Knights on July 30 and weighed six pounds and nine ounces.

The family lives on Echo Road in the Delis of Bloomfield and consists of Ross, one year, and now David.

The Chesapeake and Ohio Canal, one of the earliest manmade waterways in America, was given the official designation of National Monument in 1961. The area set aside encompasses 4,475 acres in the states of Maryland and West Virginia.
