MRS. R. R. PAULLETTE

Daisies Tell Of Wedding

Daisies told of nuptial rites at the First Presbyterian Church of Niles, which was decorated with bouquets of daisies, for the marriage of Janet Marie Jedele and Robert Royal Paullette Aug. 10. Miss Jedele, daughter of the Paul W. Jedeles of Niles, carried a colonial bouquet of daisies, and her honor attendant, Ann Moyle of Niles, carried a white basket of daisies. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Royal E. Paullette of Lakeview, Birmingham.

FOR THE CANDLELIGHT double-ring ceremony, the bride wore a floor-length sheath of silk with a soie with detachable train. The honor attendant and the bridesmaid, Kathleen Fike of Ann Arbor; Betty Paullette, the bridegroom's sister; and Mrs. David Hartzig of Detroit, were dressed alike in white over yellow floor-length gowns. Junior bridesmaid was Gail Culp of Niles. The best man was Chandler Robbins of Cape Cod, Mass.; the bridegroom's uncle. Seating the guests were Dick Reynolds of Pontiac; Tim Burton of Flint; Tom Jedele, the bride's brother; and Ray Borota of Dearborn.

A RECEPTION was held at the Four Flags Hotel in Niles. The couple left on a wedding trip to northern Michigan and Cape Cod and will be at home in Ferndale after their return. Mr. Paullette is attending the Wayne State University College of Medicine.

Showers Fete Susan Hallas

Showers are being given for Susan Hallas of Interlaken Road, who will be married to James Lewis Axtell in Kirk of the Hills on Aug. 31. Susan was guest of honor at a luncheon and personal shower given by three of her bridesmaids at the Hunter's Whip on Aug. 10. Ann Hitchman, Martha Hoppin, both of Lone Pine Road, and Sarah Mossman of Interlaken Road, were hostesses.

ON AUG. 13 another luncheon and a kitchen and linen shower were given by Mrs. Bernard L. Miller and Mrs. Philip Jones at the latter's home on Woodside Drive in Franklin. Jan Jones, who will be a freshman at Albion College in the fall, assisted her mother. Present among the guests was Mrs. Jones' niece from Miami, Fla., Barbara Dinkelo.

Former Resident Visits with Sister

Mrs. B. F. Bachelor of McAllen, Tex., formerly of Birmingham, recently visited with her sister, Mrs. Russell McBride of Inwood Circle, Bloomfield Hills. Mrs. Bachelor also visited another sister, Mrs. Alfred B. Hard of Ann Arbor, during her 10-day Michigan trip.

MRS. P. R. WHEELER

MSU Campus Is Setting for Couple's Rites

The Alumni Memorial Chapel on the Michigan State University campus was the setting for the Aug. 10 wedding of Ann Esther Stoddard and Philip Ronald Wheeler. Miss Stoddard is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence H. Stoddard of Perry, Mich. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Clifford R. Wheeler of Detroit. Following a wedding trip to Quebec and the Laurentian Mountains, the couple will make their home in the Birmingham area where they are members of the Birmingham school's faculty.

THE BRIDE chose a gown of pure silk linen with an empire waistline, elbow-length sleeves and a portrait neckline. The chapel train, accented by a cluster of matching rosebuds, was the same material as the dress. Her bouffant veil of French illusion was held in place by a petal headdress of silk organza. A small gold jeweled necklace worn by her paternal grandmother and a grandmother completed her bridal ensemble. She carried a cascade bouquet of white rosebuds and stephanotis.

MRS. WILLIAM Aaron, Jr., of Grosse Pointe was honor attendant. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Walter Littlefield of East Lansing; Mrs. William Dove, Jr., of Birmingham; and Rosemary Renwick, cousin of the bride, of Walloon Lake.

The bride attendants wore Nile green sheath gowns over olive taffeta, designed with detachable overskirts. Their headpieces were a circlet of ivy with matching bow, and they carried colonial bouquets of white gossamers and ivy.

STANLEY WHEELER of East Lansing served as best man for his brother. Seating the guests were Norman Duffy of Milford, David Lake of Dearborn and Gurney Beach of San Jose, Calif. After the ceremony, a reception was held at the Walnut Hills Country Club.

MRS. L. W. LOVELL

Nuptials Read For Couple at Christ Church

Sandra Stewart White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jay E. White, Jr., of Southfield Road, Birmingham, exchanged nuptial vows with Lawrence Wheeler Lovell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler Glass Lovell of Apple Lane, Bloomfield Hills, Saturday afternoon.

The Rev. Michael Nesbitt officiated at the double-ring ceremony at Christ Church Cranbrook, Bloomfield Hills. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of silk chantilly lace over mouseline de soie, fashioned with a bell-shaped skirt, sweetheart neckline, cap sleeves and chapel train.

HER VEIL was silk illusion with appliques of chantilly lace. She carried a prayer book adorned with album hilts and ivy. Miss White's matron of honor was Mrs. Joseph Irwin of Birmingham, sister of the bridegroom. The maid of honor was Julie Elizabeth White of Birmingham, the bride's sister.

Bridesmaids included Mrs. David Watson Smith of Birmingham, Mrs. Norman Daniel of Bloomfield Hills, and Mrs. William Decker and Ann Noble Travis, both of Detroit. The bride's attendants were gowned in pink embroidered silk organza over taffeta. The dresses had a bell-shaped skirt and sweetheart neckline. Their hats were pink wimwams with pink matching bow, and they carried colonial bouquets of cerise carnations.

THE BRIDEGROOM asked Joseph Irwin of Birmingham, his brother-in-law, to serve as best man. Ushers included John Bruce Hauser, David Watson Smith and Rose Richardson, Jr., all of Birmingham; Clyde Dease of Ann Arbor; and Ronald Moss of Southfield.

The bride's mother chose a champagne beige sheath with chignon coat and matching accessories, while the bridegroom's mother was dressed in a dusty rose silk suit with rose sequined pill box hat. Their flowers were orchids.

AFTER A CHAMPAGNE reception at Plum Hollow Country Club the couple left for a two-week wedding trip to the East Coast, including Pennsylvania and New York City. The bride donned a ivory silk dress and coat with navy accessories for traveling.

The newlyweds will make their home in Ann Arbor where Mr. Lovell is working on his doctorate at the University of Michigan.

Swiss Embroidery Adorns Gown

Patricia Ann Korleski of Grosse Pointe Woods became the bride of Arthur Martin Ciagne, Jr., son of the Arthur M. Ciagnes of Sandy Lane, Birmingham, Saturday at St. Joan of Arc Church. The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Korleski, wore a gown of pure silk organza fashioned with a bolero of lattice-like Swiss embroidery, a motif that was repeated on the semi-bell skirt.

Her headpiece consisted of an elbow-length illusion veil falling from a double wreath of small white flowers. She carried a bouquet of white roses.

THE BRIDE'S sister, Barbara Korleski of Grosse Pointe Woods, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Carolyn Gagne of Birmingham, Janice Brossniski of East Detroit and Janet Krobloch of Port Austin.

The honor attendant wore a white ribbed pique dress with yellow ribbon trim; the bridesmaids, the same dress with green trim.

Jack Monaghan of Detroit served as best man. Ushers included William Cron and John Dunn of Detroit and Ronald Knobloch of Port Austin.

MRS. KORLESKI wore a pink silk shantung sheath with a pink lace bodice and a pink flowered hat. Mrs. Ciagne chose a sea green silk jacket dress with a matching marine hat.

After an afternoon reception and dinner, the newlyweds left
