The Edward Smiths Host French Style Swim Party

By ELIZABETH YATES
MI 6-1682
The Edward Smiths of Charn-wood Drive chalked up another of their swim parties on Saturday evening — this party was done
"French Style."

For the past year Mrs. Smith has been collecting French recipes for the summer party. Then in July, colorful red and white French Twists invitations jasebled, dine, dine and dance, were designed by Mrs. Smith and mailed to all her guests.
When the party time came and the guests arrived, they found the Smith home, garden and pool transformed into a Parisian atmosphere. Tiny twinkling lights adorned the evergreens, trees and gateway descending to the pool.

COLORFUL RED and white canopies sheltered the bar, buffet table and powder rooms. Red and white cloths, flowers and candles decorated the tables.
The host and hostess greeted their guests in their swim suits, French aprons and berets to match the decor. The menu of the evening and garden markers also carried out the theme.

Enjoying the party were the Lyle Smiths of Huntington Woods, the Hal Smurthwaites of Birmingham and their Cleveland house-guests, the Bud Seltes, the John Vogts, the Allan Cooks, the Ward Stoddards, the Robert Sissons, the Lee Greeses, the Hugh Carneys, the Rip Van Winkles, all of Birmingham.

The Arthur Ericksons of Kent-moor Road will host a Hawaiian Luau party around their swimming pool for Sor-Optimist Club members and their families tonight.

During the gala party swimmers may observe the water ballet instructions taught the children by Jeani Erickson of Coos Bay, Ore. Jeani is a swim teacher, summer guest and niece of the Ericksons.

Among the 40 persons who will attend are the Leo Beamans, the Joseph Crisaps of Birmingham, the club's president, Barbara Selby, and Mrs. Edith Hynz of Royal Oak.

Mrs. Erickson is one of the club's directors and a past president. The club meets every Wednesday.

They have many benefits throughout the year to raise funds for their two Michigan State scholarship girls, Y.W.C.A. summer camp for underprivileged girls and outings for children of the Oakland County Center.

MRS. WILLIAM FRANKS entertained a group of 13 friends for a luncheon and bridge in her Beach Road home on Wednesday afternoon.

In the group from Birmingham were Mrs. Earl Rohrbacher, Mrs.
William Walsh, Mr. Harold Barnes, Mrs. Robert Dailey, Mrs.
Eugene Eichelbl, Mrs. Jack Saunders and Mrs. C. B. Chapin.

The Franks returned on the weekend from a six-day visit with friends, the Kenneth Burns of Bay City, at their summer home at Hammel Beach on Lake Huron.
The Duane Wilsons of Myddle-ton Road are looking forward to visiting houseguests the end of August. They will include the Willard Soderstroms and daughter, Gail, of Norway, Mass., and Dr. and Mrs. James Roberts of Highland Park, Ill.

They are also planning a trip to Highland Park, Ill., to visit relatives before school begins.

John Colburn, son of the Norman Colburn Jr., of Southdown Road, has just arrived back home after six weeks of ROTC training at Fort Riley, Kan.

John will be departing again on Sept. 12 for his senior year at Western Michigan University.

Randy Mills, 11-year-old son of the Donald Mills of Northover Road, spent two weeks recently at the Micky Owens Baseball Camp in the west.

Another week was spent with the Thomas Rasmussen family in St. Louis, Mo., former Birmingham residents.

LAST WEEK the Mills were cottage guests of the Robert Pittsleys of Robson Lane. The cottage is near Pointe Lookout in northern Michigan.
The sons of the R. T. Rozeks of Burnley Drive have had varying vacations this summer.

Dick is presently at a football camp in northern Michigan for a two-week stay. Tom is getting ready for his freshman year at Michigan University in September and Chuck and his parents are just returning from a ten-day trip to Denver, Colo., and other points west.

EDWARD HOPPER of Meadowlane Drive has returned home after three months of traveling through Germany, the Asian countries and Australia.

When son Steve returns from camp the family plans touring northern Michigan and the Upper Peninsula before the school bells ring.

The C. Alton Carlsons of Romney Road joined the George Underwoods of Royal Oak at the Batchawana, Ont., summer home of their hosts, the Richard Watsons, for a few days last weekend.

THE CARL Christensens of Kentmoor Road are entertaining relatives, the Arthur Hilgendorfs and son, Joel, of Watertown, Wis., this week.

They plan to return the visit in October when they journey to Wisconsin. The Christensens are also planning a tour of Chicago for a few days the end of August.
