

Bus Schedules Changed For B'ham Schools

Bus routes and pick up time for the elementary students of the Birmingham Public Schools will remain basically the same as last year.

The secondary routes will have some changes due to the opening of Berkshire Junior High School.

All 9th through 12th grade students who will be attending Groves High School and all 10th through 12th graders attending Seaholm will be picked up in time to be at school at 8 a.m. All students should be out for their buses the first day at 7:30 a.m.

THE 7TH GRADERS from Barnum Junior High School who live in the Quarton Elementary School attendance area outside the city limits of Birmingham will be picked up at 7:55 a.m. All 7th and 8th graders attending Berkshire and all 7th, 8th and 9th graders attending Derby will be picked up shortly after 8 a.m. to be in school by 8:25.

Residents new to the Birmingham system should check with their neighbors for information on where the school bus stops to pick up their children.

Further information may be obtained by contacting your local principal.

Clip Holds Button

If you lose a button from a shirt cuff during the day, a paper clip will hold it neatly until the button can be replaced. It won't stab you, either—as a straight pin might.
