

Church Names Director For Children's Work

Alta Ice has assumed the responsibility of director of children's work in the education department of First Methodist Church as of Aug. 15.

Miss Ice is a graduate of Salem College. She also graduated as a deaconess from Lucy Webb Hayes National Training School for missionaries and deaconesses. Her graduate work was completed at Scarritt College, Nashville, Tenn.

While working on her master's degree, she served as conference director of children's work for the Tennessee Conference, Nashville, Tenn. She is also a certified director of Christian education of the Board of Education of the Methodist Church.

SHE HAS served in social settlement, was social and religious director and chaplain for nurses and interns at Sibley Memorial Hospital, Washington, D. C. and came to Birmingham from First Methodist Church, Parkersburg, W. Va., where she served in a similar capacity.

She will be working on the staff along with the Rev. Carl Price, who is associate minister and director of youth work. Miss Ice's responsibility will cover children's work of the church from home nursery through the 6th grades.

Local Church Will Conduct Study Groups

St. James Episcopal Church will begin a 10-week adult study group Thurs., Oct. 10 at 8 p.m. at the church. This discussion type course, published by Seabury Press, is entitled "Journey into Faith."

It is intended to reach:
1. People who have reached the decision to be confirmed and need the instruction.

2. Persons who have been confirmed at an early age and wish to deepen their understanding of the church.

3. Persons who had no church affiliation and want to find out about the life and faith of the Episcopal Church.

4. Persons who are members of other Christian bodies and have no intention of changing their membership, but are interested in free and open discussion about religious matters.

Each session will last for one hour and a half. All interested must register, but no one may register after the second session.

The sessions will be conducted by lay people along with the clergy of the parish. Registrations are being taken at the church office.

A WORD TO THE WISE FROM MISTER OH...

KEEP INDEPENDENT

You keep your freedom of choice with oil heat. Many local fuel oil suppliers compete to provide the service you want. If one fails to satisfy, you can easily call another—a choice you never have when tied to a monopoly fuel. Oil refiners compete with each other, too, which has kept oil cost down while monopoly fuel prices have gone up. Most important, of course, is the family security of an independent oil heating system. There's never a worry about an accident along a pipe line since your burner and fuel are right at hand to keep you warm and cozy.

Nativity Episcopal Church

Plans of the last five years were realized yesterday when ground was broken for the new Nativity Episcopal Church, W. 14 Mile Road, Bloomfield Township. The church, now operating from a house near the site of the new building, is a mission church of Christ Church Cranbrook. The Rev. Louis C. Gillette said the church should be completed by Christmas or Jan. 1. The new building is expected to house 250 people. Contractor is Maurice V. Rogers Co., Detroit, and chairman of the building committee is Max Roehch.
