Luau's Are Forever

Birmingham - Bloomfield has embraced luau's this summer like they were going out of style! Most recent of these exotic-type parties were given at Birmingham Country Club (above) and at Stonycroft Golf Club. Going native for an evening at Birmingham were James Chenet (from left, back row), Charles Granader, William Evans and Marshal Chambers. Front row from left it's Mrs. Chenet, Mrs. Evans, Mrs. Granader and Mrs. Chambers.

NORTH ADAMS

Whitall Family Returns From Pennsylvania Trip

By ELIZABETH YATES MI 6-1682

The last week of August brings a bustling air to the North Adams area as summer vacations come to a close, newcomers hurriedly settle in their new community and the errands are run that go with getting children ready for the big push in September.

The Robert Whitalls of Orchard Hill Drive have just returned from a 10-day trip to Philadelphia, Pa., with their children, Bob Jr., Susan and Kevin.

This was the "first meeting" of year-old Kevin and his grandparents, Dr. and Mrs. James Whitall.

The family also stopped in Amherst, Pa., to visit friends and relatives while they stayed with guests, Mr. and Mrs. Carson Mort.

Last week was spent camping in northern Michigan with their children.

THE CHARLES Gardners and children, Mike and Missy, of Meadowlark Drive spent a vacation at Burroughs Farm near Brighton, Mich.

Prior to their departure the Gardners entertained at a patio barbeque party inviting a group of former Wayne University friends.

The group of 20 included area neighbors, the Walter Albers, who arrived with surprise birthday gifts to celebrate Mrs. Gardner's birthday the same evening.

Tanglewood, N. C., was the vacation destination of the Paul Lehmanns and children, Paul, Dudley and Nancy, of Wendover Road. During their two-week stay at the resort they visited relatives in near by Raleigh.

The Harold Melns of Patch Drive have been spending the summer at their cottage near Linda, Mich. Enjoying the sand and swimming are the little Melns, Linda, Joanne, Richard, Phyllis and Kristin.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dworski of Dogwood Court, journeyed to Ontonagon on Lake Superior for their two-week vacation. They mixed business with pleasure as they joined their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Satter, in their Porcupine Mountain Gift Shop.

Dr. and Mrs. Jay Van Zeeen and children of Rock Spring Road chose Little Glen Lake in northern Michigan as their vacation playground this year.

Patrick Richardson of Pine Hill Drive returned home on Sunday to be greeted by his parents, the Donald Richardsons, after a five-week stay at Thunderbird Camp in northern Michigan.

The camp specializes in swimming, basketball, baseball, football and track.

Pat's interest was tracked under the direction of Kermit Ambrose, track coach at Seaborn High.

Daughter Donna spent the summer in the pool at the Birmingham Athletic Club while her parents spent a two-week vacation at Hidden Valley recently.

Nancy Chute, daughter of the David Chutes of Robinson Drive will be packing her bags soon and departing Sept. 15 for her freshman year at Central Michigan.

The John Drumm family moved from Cleveland, O., into their new home on Dover Road recently.

The family includes Jack Jr., 21, and Richard, 20, who are married and living in Cleveland, July, 18, leaving for her freshman year at Penn State in September, Kathy, 12 and Mary Ellen, 10, will attend Holy Name.

Drumm is auto accessories division supervisor with Ford Motor Co. Among the family's interests are camping, fishing and bowling. They have just returned from a two-week camping and fishing trip near Quebec, Can.
