LATHRUP - CRANBROOK VILLAGE

Nancy Gideon Will Become Bride of William Milliron

GLORIA JESSUP MA 6-3257

Aug. 30 is the date set by Nancy Reiner Gideon and William Armitage Milliron Jr. for their wedding.

It will take place in the Community Congregational Church in Lathrup Village.

Nancy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Reiner of Bungalow, Lathrup Village. Bill is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Milliron Sr. of Youngstown, O.

Matron of honor will be Mrs. Robert Raitsch and best man will be Samuel E. Milliron, brother of the groom. The reception will be held at the Village Women's Club, Bloomfield Hills.

FOLLOWING a wedding trip to Northern Michigan, the couple will make their home in Philadelphia while Milliron continues work on his masters degree at Wharton school of finance of the University of Pennsylvania.

On Aug. 11 Mr. and Mrs. Robert Raitsch of Bungalow honored the couple at a cocktail and bar shower.

Mr. Donald Waddell of Renfrew Road gave a shower for Nancy recently and a dinner party for Nancy and Bill was given last Tuesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ghent of Longacre Road, Rosedale Park.

THERE HAVE been many events scheduled for the members of the Cranbrook Country Club.

Last Wednesday evening there was a "teen party" which included dinner and swimming. Approximately 50 young people attended.

On Aug. 25, there was a brunch by the pool for the adults, and on Labor Day families are invited for swimming and pool events, a volleyball tournament and pony rides.

Plans are underway by chairman Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lunan and their committee for the dinner dance on Sept. 30. The event will take place at the Botaford Inn.

MR. AND MRS. George Cummings have returned to their Hickory Leaf home following a two-week visit with Mrs. Cummings' parents at their Dunellen, N. J. home.

Candace, Lorraine and Chip had great fun in the pool of their grandparents. Mr. and Mrs. Phillip W. Starner, while their parents went to New York for sight seeing, shopping, and the T.V. show, Passawood.

Barbara Craig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Craig of Sunnybrook, became the bride of Robert Thompson of Ann Arbor last Saturday.

PREVIOUS TO the wedding she was honored at several showers. Mrs. Robert Peterson and Mrs. William Beske, both of Sunnybrook, co-hosted a line shower for neighbors last Monday evening.

Claudia Stafford of Cambridge Village, Barbara's bridesmaid, gave a miscellaneous shower for Barbara. It was attended by high school and college friends.

Mrs. Richard Cogger of Sunset entertained recently in Barbara's honor with a kitchen shower.

ANOTHER AUGUST bride is Sharon Fleischer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fleischer of Lathrup Boulevard. Sharon became the bride of Robert Wagner on Aug. 1.

A miscellaneous shower was given in her honor recently by Mrs. Webb Owen and Mrs. George Hostow, both of San Quentin.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Bush of San Quentin will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Cottingham at Black Sturgeon Lake, Ont., for the next ten days. Also among the party will be Judd Arnett and Lyle Smith.

MR. AND MRS. Donald Kuntzman of Spring River returned last Saturday from a week's visit with Kuntzman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Kuntzman of Okemos, Mich. Deb and Bobby went along also to visit at their grandparents' resort.

John Fleming is in New York visiting his sister Carol who is appearing in a Broadway production at present. John and Carol are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Al Fleming of Glenwood.

MR. AND MRS. Dana Norton of Bloomfield will be leaving shortly to drive their son John to Missouri where he will enter Tarkio College for his freshman year. John graduated in June from Howe Military Academy.

Back home, but for only a brief stay, is Charla Rusche, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fredric Rusche of Rock Creek Drive.

Charla spent the summer working at the Ogunquit Resort in Maine and is now making preparations for her sophomore year at the University of Michigan.

Her brother Rod has also returned home after eight weeks at Camp Fairwood on Torch Lake.

THE VERNON Wheelers will be returning to their home in Boca Raton, Fla., some time in the near future. They have been spending the summer with their daughter and son-in-law, the Charles Cruthwates of Pleasant Trail.

John B. Foster of Autumn Lane performed a pleasant duty recently. He acted as one of the judges at the Romeo Peach Festival. This "duty" also included picking the queen.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster and son Jeff Lindstrom are now anxiously awaiting the Labor Day visits of the Lindstrom girls.

CATHY, who is an airline hostess, will be flying in from California for a week.

Mary will be returning from Homestead resort in Glen Arbor, Mich.

Suzanne, (Mrs. Tod Kaiser), will be coming for a visit from Illinois with her husband.

MRS. WEBSTER

Saginaw Ceremony Unites Pair

Barbara Alice Novy and Roger Dean Webster were united in marriage Aug. 17 at First Congregational Church, Saginaw.

For the candlelight ceremony the bride chose a silk organza over taffeta gown styled with a scoop neckline accented with pearl embroidered Alencon lace. Silk organza roses secured her illusion veil and she carried white roses and ivy.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Frank G. Novy of Saginaw. Parents of the bride-groom are the Harold G. Websters of Birmingham.

Ellen M. Webster of Birmingham, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. The bride's sister, Mrs. Eugene J. Slomkowski of Sanford, Mich., was matron of honor.

THEY WORE white silk organza over taffeta dresses and carried bouquets of yellow miniature roses and daisies.

Richard H. Wagner of Birmingham was best man. Seating guests were the bridegroom's brother, Gary L. Webster, the bride's brother-in-law, Eugene Slomkowski, James A. Bricker of Ohio and Richard S. Wendt of Walled Lake.

Laura M. and Lynn E. Slomkowski were flower girls.

The newlyweds' reception was held in the Crystal ballroom of the Baneroff, Saginaw. They will make their home in Berkeley.

Mrs. Pearson Marks 85th Birthday

Mrs. Miles H. Knowles of Broadway Blvd. entertained Friday at a luncheon honoring her mother, Mrs. Roland F. Pearson, on her eighty-fifth birthday.

Among guests at the party for Mrs. Pearson, a Royal Oak resident for the past 50 years, were Mrs. Burton Newberry, Mrs. Walter Shade, Mrs. R. D. Bradshaw, Mrs. Lowell Price and Mrs. Louis Pacioni.
