Auxiliary Plans Sept. Meeting

On Sept. 12 the board of directors of Crittenton General Hospital Auxiliary will hold a meeting at the hospital in Detroit.

The auxiliary, with Mrs. James Eldon of Birmingham as its president, is planning a full schedule for the months ahead.

Mathews Return

Mr. and Mrs. Fenton R. Mathews, 5900 N. Adams Road, have returned from an extended pleasure and business trip to Baltimore, New York, Bar Harbor, Maine and Quebec City and Montreal, Can.

Have You Met...

Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Chronister Jr., who recently moved to 5728 Sutters Lane from Southfield? The Chronister children are Charles III, 14, Karen 11, and William 10. Chronister is a group manufacturing coordinator with Rockwell - Standard Corp. He is a member of the North Congregational Church.

The Neal C. Johnsons who moved from Dallas, Tex., to 2155 Windemere? Deborah, 7, and Joni, 4, complete the family roster. Johnson is employed by General Motors in Credit Analysis Training.

Recent houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Larry B. Avison, Jr. of Beverly Road, Beverly Hills, were her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Muldoon of Aubonne (near Geneva), Switzerland.

Accompanying their parents on a first-trip-home in a number of years were Brian, Shelley and Gwynny who immediately caught up on Americanisms (teenage variety!) through their cousins, Ginger, Lance and Chris Avison.

Brian went back to boarding school, Le Rosey in Rolle, all set to demonstrate The Stomp; Shelley had her long (below waistline) tresses cut—courtesy of cousin Ginger—and Gwynny ate her weight in hamburgers, seldom available in Aubonne.

In the meantime, senior members of the family reunion were feted at cocktails, poolside and patio parties, dinners and theater parties.

Minor Family On the Go

Mr. and Mrs. Lance C. Minor of Pleasant St., Birmingham, have been busy this summer meeting trains and planes.

Mr. and Mrs. William G. Minor and sons Tim and Steve arrived in July from San Francisco to spend six weeks with the boys' respective grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Minor and Mrs. Fred Aldred of Webster St.

Also here in July were Mr. and Mrs. Lance C. Minor, Jr. of Dallas, Tex., with Barbara, Virginia and Lance III.

Emily Minor has just returned from a nine weeks' tour of thirteen European countries, a trip sponsored by Michigan State University. Cherry Warren, another Birminghamite, was on the same tour, both girls planning to return to State for their senior year the last of September.

Country Club Party To Honor Couple's 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur J. Pierce of Charing Cross Road, Bloomfield Hills, and her brother-in-law and sister, the Robert L. Frysors of Southfield will be co-hosts at a reception Sept. 1 honoring Mr. and Mrs. Earl E. Pierce of Keego Harbor and Fort Lauderdale, Fla., on their fiftieth wedding anniversary.

Among the 50 guests attending the party, which will take place at Plum Hollow Country Club, will be Mrs. Otto Kuenhold and her son and daughter-in-law, the Ned Kuenholds; Jack Kuenhold and Mrs. Karl Kaercher, all of Cleveland.

Daughter Born

Mr. and Mrs. William L. Studebaker of Jackson, Mich. announce the birth on Aug. 25 of a daughter, Kristen Gray Studebaker. Mrs. Studebaker is the former Nina Gray Slavson of Birmingham.

Early Deadlines For Next Issue

The Birmingham Eccentric will be closed Labor Day. All advertisers and news contributors are reminded that early deadlines will be in effect and are asked to submit their copy to our offices at 1225 E. Bowers as early as possible.

Just what, please, are the motivations of persons who unceasingly seek to "boss" others? Take the chap (or chaps) who from the habit of being the head man in his business, or one who is a supervisor or foreman in an organization; is it habit? Or the one who distorts honest, good intentions by making many "suggestions" to others. In either case, such a habit is distasteful, objectionable.
