

Alencon Lace Highlights Bridal Robes

Wearing an imported ivory silk alpaca gown with a bateau neckline and modified bell skirt banded with crystal embroidered Alencon lace, Judith Gail Applequist walked up the aisle of Kirk in the Hills to become the bride of Clifford Jon Soechtig on Aug. 24.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon C. Applequist, 1885 Long Lake Shores Drive, Orchard Lake. Parents of the bridegroom are the Charles Soechtigs of East Williston, New York.

An ivory silk Alencon lace trim pillow securing French illusion veiling completed the bridal robes.

Have You Met . . .

LINDA APPLEQUIST was the bride's maid of honor. Attendants were Donna Badenoch, Lynn Kamradt and Mrs. Duane Jennings.

They wore raspberry shербert silk taffeta dresses with matching silk cabbage rose headpieces. The attendants carried red roses.

Assisting as best man was Gregory Giesel of New York. Seating guests were Richard Rossi of Detroit, Eric Gesell and Eugene Soechtig of New York.

Following a reception at Bloomfield Hills Country Club, the couple left for a wedding trip to Bermuda.

P.R. Gal to Tackle Luncheon Fetes College Bound Local Girls

By MARY ELLEN HEAD SOCIETY EDITOR

Dorothy (Mrs. George E.) Montgomery and her two teenage daughters, Lynn and Leigh, enjoyed a final vacation fling in northern Michigan this week (headquartering in Oscoda) before bracing themselves for the moving vans which will lumber up to their Park St. home the end of next week.

Dorothy and husband Ed—who's already in the East—have succumbed to the lure of a new job (his) and henceforth will call York, Pa., home.

MRS. MONTGOMERY

THAT SHE'LL BE missed is putting it mildly, for brunet, dynamic Dorothy is well-known all across the town. Because of her varied interests (church, civic and social), her unbounding enthusiasm for any project she tackles and her willingness to work like a Trojan on a volunteer OR professional basis, she's been called upon by innumerable groups to help them put their particular "show" on the road.

She's one of those few "n-far-between persons; a natural when it comes to P.R. work. In this capacity she's worked for the Republican Party, Bloomfield Country Day, the YMCA, local contests and, her first love, St. James Episcopal Church.

DOROTHY HAS BEEN co-editor of the St. James News since its beginning, writing many of the news and feature articles. During her eight years of affiliation with the church she was secretary for St. Martha's guild, UTO chairman for the ECW, choir mother for six years, choir camp counselor for five years and, for the last four years, has been communication chairman for the parish.

These kinds of activity brought her into almost daily contact with radio, TV and the newspapers—no chore for Dorothy who loves people plus stimulating assignments.

Those of us who know her predict Mrs. Montgomery will take York by storm!

Musical Fraternity Holds Anniversary

Members of Zeta Xi chapter of Delta Omicron international music fraternity will celebrate the chapter's 10th anniversary on Sept. 3 with a dinner at Sylvan Glen Inn, Troy.

The chapter, originally known as the Oakland Alumnae Club of Delta Omicron, received its charter on July 6, 1953.

Honored guests at the dinner will be the 15 charter members, four of whom are from the Birmingham area. They are Mrs. Phoebe DeGraft, Mrs. Alice Gerche, Mrs. Bessie McCheney and Mrs. Ernie Roberts. Mrs. Hazel Batty, formerly of Birmingham and now residing in Washington, D. C., is also a charter member.

Vacationing

Mr. and Mrs. Anson Priests of N. Pemberton Road, Bloomfield Township, are spending this week at the Old Club on Harsens Island. Over Labor Day weeks they will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Villissime at Gull Lake.

Pair Receives Papal Blessing After Marriage

A Papal Blessing following the noon Mass at the Church of the Precious Blood uniting in marriage Penelope Ann Peniwell and Jon Parker Dady on Aug. 17.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. Karl Peniwell of Detroit and the late Mrs. Peniwell. Parents of the bridegroom are the Chester A. Dady, 711 Hupp Cross Road, Birmingham.

For her marriage the bride chose an empire line organandy gown with a bodice of heavy cotton Venice lace. The shaped front changed into a cape train effect in the back. A headpiece of matching Venice lace secured a shoulder length veil. She carried white roses.

ATTENDING HER sister as matron of honor was Mrs. William J. Adams. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Dale L. Simons, Lois Skagerberg and Bonny Lielowan.

They wore yellow organandy empire line gowns with A-line skirts. Their headpieces were matching yellow organandy and they carried daisies.

Michael J. Dady assisted his brother as best man. Dale L. Simons, William J. Adams and Daniel R. Cahill assisted guests.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held on the grounds and in the Coach House of the Botaford Inn.

The couple will make their home in Detroit after a tour of New England.

Others Attending Luncheon Fetes College Bound Local Girls

The girls entertained the mothers with a hootnanny. As most of the girls had been counselors at summer camps, they knew many songs. With ukulele accompaniment, it developed into a lively afternoon.

OTHERS ATTENDING the farewell luncheon were Mrs. Herbert W. Schmetzky and daughter Sandra, who is going to Michigan State University; and Mrs. Robert C. Wyatt and Patti, who will soon depart for Connecticut College for Women.

Alumnae Fete Collegiate Sorority Group

The Alpha Omicron Pi alumnae in this area entertained the local collegiate members of the sorority at a coffee on Aug. 28 at the home of Mrs. Mel Allen, Washington Blvd., Birmingham.

Mrs. Allen recently returned from the international convention of the sorority in Biloxi, Miss., where she served as official delegate for her alumnae group.

The sorority collegiate members in this area attend many different colleges and universities, including Michigan, Michigan State, DePaul, Purdue, Western Michigan and the University of Colorado.

MRS. GIBSON

Candlelight Ceremony Unites Pair

An Aug. 24 ceremony at First Presbyterian Church, Birmingham, united in marriage Kathie Linda Koenig of Birmingham and Lloyd Bryan Gibson of Ann Arbor.

Parents of the bride are the Howard A. Koenigs. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gibson of Whittier, Cal.

Carrying a cascade of white roses, the bride was dressed in a floor length white peau de seie gown with a chapel train. Chantilly lace and seed pearls accentuated the neckline. An elbow length veil was secured by a white pillbox topped with a taffeta rose trimmed with tulle.

ATTENDING HER sister at the candlelight ceremony was Mrs. Steven York of Birmingham. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Douglas Brown of Ann Arbor, Mrs. Charles Piazino of Quincy, Mass., Carol Shaver of Wayzata, Minn., and Susan Bernard of Grosse Pointe Park.

They wore floor length blue gowns with matching headpieces. Their flowers were blue, purple and pink carnations.

David J. Gibson assisted his brother as best man. Seating guests were Ross Gibson, another brother, David Cook of Grosse Pointe, and Thomas Wilson, Robert Carnegie and Arnie Rousseau, all of Ontario.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents on Mayfair Lane. Following a wedding trip to Lake Placid, N.Y., and Montreal, Que., the couple will make their home in Ann Arbor.

Moody-Adams

Announcement is made of the marriage on Aug. 21 of Ruth Taylor Adams, daughter of Mrs. Willard L. Adams of Brown Bl., Birmingham and the late Mr. Adams, to Robert Phillip Moody, son of Mrs. Freida Whittlock Moody of Birmingham and Karl L. Moody of Detroit.

The 8 o'clock ceremony took place in the home of the bride's mother.

Mothers Sponsor Ice Premiere

Going over the arrangements for a premiere benefit of "Holiday on Ice," Tues., Oct. 8 at Convention Arena, Detroit, are (from left) Mrs. Earle S. MacPherson, Mrs. John O. Dykstra and chairman Mrs. Jesse P. Judd.

The Mother's Club of Bloomfield Country Day School for Girls is sponsoring the performance for the school's scholarship fund. Tickets are available at Grinnell Brothers in Birmingham.
