

'How about a Ride?'

John M. Rossmessl, mathematics teacher at Seaholm High School, Birmingham, takes a close look at a General Motors experimental "dream car" at the GM Technical Center, Warren, Mich. Rossmessl is attending the GM conference for high school science and mathematics teachers. The purpose of the conference is to acquaint educators with latest engineering and scientific developments in GM operations and give General Motors executives a perspective of educational problems and policies.

Chapnick's Will Host Reception

in advance of the Israel Bond High Hold Day Appeal. Chapnick is a former president of Beth Aaron and active in communal affairs.

ED CAREY was elected to the Detroit Common Council in 1957 and prior to that served as a member of the Michigan Legislature for 11 years. For seven years he was administration floor leader in the House. Carey has served as chairman of the Wayne County Board of Supervisors, as well as on a number of state committees.

Ed Carey, president of the Detroit Common Council, will be the guest speaker at a leadership reception to be hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Chapnick at their home, 1347 Ardmore, Birmingham, on Sept. 5, at 8:30 p.m. The reception is on behalf of Congregation Beth Aaron and is
