

Bridal Pair Sails Aboard Queen Mary

Susan Carol Hallas became the bride of James Lewis Axtell at a double ring ceremony in Kirk of the Hills Saturday afternoon. Dr. Harold C. DeWinds officiated.

Susan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hallas of Interlaken Road, Pine Lake. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. A. J. Axtell of Sidney, N. Y., and Mrs. Joseph K. Levinsky of Phoenix, Ariz.

Carrying a cascade bouquet of stephanotis, white roses and ivy, the bride wore a gown of white silk tulle with bateau neckline, three-quarter sleeves and bodice of Alencon lace and seed pearls. From a small pill box fashioned of the same materials fell a fingertip veil.

MRS. AXTELL

Ph. D. in English history at Trinity College, Cambridge University. Susan will attend Newnham, the women's college at Cambridge University.

Alpha Delta Pi Alumnae Gather

The North Suburban Alumnae group of Alpha Delta Pi starts its fall and winter activities today with a meeting at the home of Mrs. Peter Lindsey, 32927 Bingham Lane. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Fred Wuelner and Mrs. Richard Houghton. All Alpha Delta Pi alumnae in the area are invited to attend.

Mrs. H. W. Gilbert of Royal Oak will give a report on the activities of the group's 12th anniversary convention held in Hot Springs, Ark., last June.

A PASTEL BLUE silk shantung sheath and box jacket with matching hat and shoes were chosen by Mrs. Levinsky. She wore a corsage of red roses.

Following a garden reception at her parents' lake-front home, Mrs. Axtell changed to a rust suit of raw silk with aqua silk lining and blouse, and the newlyweds left for New York.

They sailed yesterday aboard the Queen Mary for England, where they will make their home at 39 Victoria Park, Cambridge. Jim will continue work on his
