The Hubbards Entertain At Western Pool Party

By ELIZABETH YATES
MI 6-1632

The John Hubbards of Parkman Drive entertained a group of 24 friends at a "Western Pool Party" around their new heated pool a recent Saturday evening. Their home and garden were transformed into an "Old West" atmosphere with red and white cloths and western lanterns decorating the tables. A bar done western style stood close by. Arriving on the scene was a chuck wagon manned by cowboys who dismounted and began cooking and serving a western supper from large iron skillets. The Hubbards decided on the western party theme while in Phoenix with the same group of 24 this spring.

THE GARDEN and free form patio accented with towering fir trees set the scene for the Sunday evening cocktail party hosted by the Gerald Shannons of Kernway Drive. The group of 50 guests were all residents of the Bloomfield Hills Estates. The William Franke of Beach Road will be entertaining at their 10th annual patio beef barbecue party on Saturday afternoon. Each year Mrs. Franke decorates the large patio with colorful table cloths and black hurricane lamps to give the party a festive air.

THE PARTY fare will include cocktails, their traditional beef barbecue buffet and an evening of games.

In the annual party group are the Donald Cherrys, the William McEntees, the Arthur Fetters, the Roderick Armstrongs, the Jack Kellers, the Thomas Kennedys, the Paul Scheffereys of Grosse Pointe. Detroit residents include the D. J. O'Connell, the Horace Craigs and from Birmingham there will be the F. Emmett Duceys and the Robert Daileys. Arriving for the party and the weekend will be houseguests, the Kenneth Burns and the Arthur Williamsons of Bay City.

MRS. FRANCIS Shaw of Meadowlane Court entertained at a "farewell coffee" an afternoon last week honoring Mrs. Otis Dickey.

Among the group of 16 attending were Birmingham-Bloomfield residents Mrs. Forbes Hascall, Mrs. Arnold Runkle, Mrs. Dan Nesbitt, Mrs. Lawrence Gilley, Mrs. Grant Barber, Mrs. Harry O. Martin, Mrs. Thomas Colley, Mrs. Russell Olson. Mrs. Hugh White of Plymouth also joined. Mrs. Dickey will be accompanying Dr. Dickey, former superintendent of Birmingham Schools, to Denver, Colo., where he will take up his duties as superintendent of schools. They will reside in Englewood.

AN AFTERNOON bridge and dessert was hosted by Mrs. Robert Boger of Hickory Heights Drive on Wednesday. Gathering around the tables were Mrs. John Bryant, Mrs. Donald Douglas, Mrs. Dayton Slater, Mrs. Ned Randau, Mrs. James Brien, Mrs. Fred Burge and Mrs. Edward Beck, all of Hickory Heights subdivision. The Edward Becks of Meadowlane Drive will be moving to Cleveland, O., in October. Beck has been transferred with the Square D Co. Son Tom will be attending school there. Daughters, Judith and Barbara, will be departing for Western Michigan University on Sept. 16. Judith will be in her senior year while Barbara will be a freshman.

THE EDWARD SMITHS of Charwood Drive went "pink" when they entertained at a Sunday morning breakfast and swim party last weekend. Planter boxes and pool borders were brimming with pink petunias to match the patio umbrellas and pool. A pink wheelbarrow filled with ice held beverages and fruits of the breakfast menu. Giving the party a tropical air was an exotic pink lantana tree at one corner of the pool. Their guests were the Ward Steadard family of Westview Court, the Alan Yates family, the Dick Green family of Masefield Drive and the Joseph Howells of Folsom.

THE WILLIAM JOYCES of Whittier Drive entertained at a patio party inviting a group of area friends for cocktails and "supper on Sunday afternoon. The first Chapel Hills Estates Garden Club meeting of the fall will be held at the Ashover Road home of Mrs. James Lekander on Monday, beginning at 12:30 p.m. Their guest speaker will be Mrs. William McCallam, national extension chairman of the W.N.F.G.A.

A get-acquainted tea will follow Mrs. McCallam's talk. All newcomers in the area are invited to attend the meeting. The Osage Garden Club will have a "Grow and Show" program at their first fall meeting to be held at the Lanegan Drive home of Mrs. Charles Howson on Monday afternoon. Each member will talk on the culture and use of the displayed garden plants and materials. An exhibit grab bag will bring the program to a close.

Have You Met . . . Mr. and Mrs. Max B. Roosa and their 21-year-old son, Dennis? They moved from Detroit to 18080 Chelton Drive on Aug. 16. He is operations manager with Parker Rust Proof Division of Hooker Chemical Corp. The Roosas are members of the Detroit Golf Club and The Recs.

Animal Lovers to the Fore!

Birmingham-Bloomfield members of the Michigan Animal Rescue League are once again involved in the group's annual Antique Fair to be given Sept. 12, 13 and 14 in the Auditorium at Cranbrook School. Among committee members for the huge event is Mrs. Sidney Norwood of Charing Cross Road who posed with 18-year-old (125 years by human count!) Bonnie. Proceeds from the fair will help sustain the Animal Shelter in Pontiac.
