MRS. CAMPBELL

Bridal Pair United at St. James

Virginia Elise Backus was united in marriage to John Vail Campbell at St. James Episcopal Church, Birmingham, on Aug. 31. The Rev. David Van Dusen officiated at the 3 p.m. double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Backus, 1276 Hillside, Birmingham. Parents of the bridegroom are the Colin Campbells, 655 Lakeview, Birmingham.

FOR HER wedding the bride chose a floor length silk organza gown accented with re-embroidered Alencon lace. The skirt swept into a chapel train. Her elbow length veil fell from a cap of Alencon lace and seed pearls. An orchid and stephanotis comprised the bridal bouquet.

Barbara Anderson of Denver, Colo., attended the bride as maid of honor. Judy Krempe of Beverly Hills and Kristen Longwell of Saginaw were bridesmaids.

THE ATTENDANTS wore aqua silk taffeta gowns with bell-shaped skirts. Their headresses were matching bows and veils, and they carried yellow carnations and ivy. The bridegroom asked his brother, the Rev. Colin Campbell of the Village Women's Club followed the ceremony. After a trip to Northern Michigan, the couple will make their home at 1954 Graefield, Birmingham.

REGORY BACKUS, the bride's nephew, was ring bearer. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Backus Jr. A reception at the Village Women's Club followed the ceremony. After a trip to Northern Michigan, the couple will make their home at 1954 Graefield, Birmingham.

MRS. SURMONT

Miss White Repeats Vows To Dr. Surmont

On Saturday, Aug. 24, Barbara Ann White repeated her marriage vows to Dr. Eugene L. Surmont in Our Lady Queen of Martyrs Church in a floor length gown of silk organza over taffeta accented with appliqued flowers and seed pearls. Her shoulder length veil was secured by a matching pillbox and she carried a white orchid and stephanotis on a white prayer book.

Her maid of honor, Christine White, of Beverly Hills and Patricia White of Birmingham, were gowned in street length dresses of apricot silk organza over taffeta with headresses of pillboxes to match. They carried yellow and tangerine carnations.

ROBERT SURMONT of Grosse Pointe assisted the bridegroom as best man with Thomas White of Birmingham, Dr. Robert Jones of Durand, Donald Morrissey of Royal Oak and Donald Simpson of Farmington serving as ushers.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Willard J. White, 1831 Hillcrest, Beverly Hills. Parents of the bridegroom are the Richard L. Surmonts of Marine City, Mich.

After the double-ring ceremony followed a breakfast and reception at Rotunda Inn on Pine Lake. The bride changed to a traveling costume of azalea pink with matching gloves, jacket, hat and beige accessories before leaving on a two-week tour through Northern Michigan. After the wedding trip the newlyweds will make their home in Swartz Creek, Mich.

MRS. R. J. WALLS

James Walls Is Married To Ohio Girl

Sacred Heart Church in Masury, O., was the scene of the marriage on Aug. 24 of Dorothy Ann Ser and R. James Walls, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Walls of Hupp Cross Road, Bloomfield Village. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Russell L. Richards of Masury and Gabriel P. Ser of Montclair, Calif.

Given in marriage by her stepfather, the bride wore a floor-length gown of miramist taffeta trimmed in Venetian lace featuring a scoop neckline, three-quarter sleeves and a sheath skirt with a bouffant overskirt. A matching, crushed rose headpiece secured a bouffant veil of illusion, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white miniature stephanotis with streamers of white satin and English ivy.

MRS. WILLIAM A. SER was matron of honor for her sister-in-law and bridesmaids included Nancy and Virginia Walls, sisters of the bridegroom; Carol Timbers and Suzanne Murphy. They all wore aqua floor-length gowns of taffeta and carried pink, blue and white colonial bouquets.

Best man was Gary Novak, while seating the guests were William A. Ser, Laurence Nickel, Richard Riley and Ronald Turbacewski.

After a wedding trip to Florida, the couple are at home in Kent, O. Among Birmingham guests who attended the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Mow, uncle and aunt of the bridegroom; E. Bruce Chastart, his godfather; Mr. and Mrs. Gage Mow, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hitchcock, Mr. and Mrs. Merrett Petti, Mr. and Mrs. John Hays and Robert Hewitt.

MRS. DOBSON

Nuptial Vows Repeated by Candlelight

Nancy Jo Chinn repeated her nuptial vows to Russell T. Dobson IV at a candlelight ceremony at the Presbyterian Church, Ferndale, on Aug. 31.

She is the daughter of the Harold G. Chinn, 31155 Pierce, Birmingham. He is the son of Mr. Russell T. Dobson III of Ann Arbor.

The bride walked down the aisle in a silk organza over taffeta gown with re-embroidered Alencon lace on the bodice and front of the bell-shaped skirt. A silk organza bow with a seed pearl drop secured the bouffant veil. She carried Amazon lilies, stephanotis and ivy.

THE BRIDE'S sister, Susan Chinn, was maid of honor. Mrs. Glenn Scott of Birmingham was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Paulette Bailey and Joan Kahler, both of Birmingham.

They wore ice blue lace over taffeta gowns with bell skirts. Their headresses were matching cabbage roses. The bridesmaids carried nosegays of carnations tinted to match their dresses.

A reception in the church followed the ceremony. The newlyweds will make their home in Chicago following a Northern Michigan wedding trip.
