Couple at Home

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Koehler are home in West Lafayette, Ind., following a two-week honeymoon in Northern Michigan. The couple repeated their marriage vows before the Rev. LeRoy Blackman, uncle of the bride, at Mt. Pleasant General Baptist Church, Mt. Vernon, Ind., on Aug. 10. The bride is the former Bonnie Jill Blackburn, daughter of Mrs. Kenneth J. Blackburn and the late Mr. Blackburn of Mt. Vernon. The bridegroom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. William H. Koehler, 4416 Far Hill Drive, Birmingham.

MRS. MULLEN

FOR THE 3:30 ceremony, the bride chose a white silk organza gown accentuated with Chantilly lace. The sculptured lace bodice was designed with a Sabrina neckline and elbow length sleeves. Garlands of lace adorned each side of the skirt, which swept into a chapel train. A beaded pillbox caught her finger tip veil of silk illusion. She carried a bouquet of white roses, a Bible, which was a gift from her late father. Mrs. James E. Grass of Des Plaines, Ill., attended her sister as matron of honor. The bridesmaids, Mrs. Fred Melcher of Milwaukee, Joy Shatts of Youngstown, O., and Judy Carlson of Highland, Ind., are all sorority sisters of the bride.

THE ATTENDANTS wore floor length gowns of silk organza in rainbow colors of pastel pink, blue, yellow and green with matching head bows. All carried bouquets of white daisies.

Candace Lee Grass, the bride's niece, was flower girl. She wore a mint green taffeta dress.

The bridegroom asked Fred Pulve of Bloomfield Hills to assist him as best man. Seating guests were Michael Malev of Royal Oak, Robert Martin of Monroe and Robert Dahl of Racine, Wis., a fraternity brother of the bridegroom.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother.

It's a Girl

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Braidwood (Ruth Pennington of Hazel Park) of Troy announce the birth of a daughter, Nancy Ann, on Aug. 18. The baby's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Edd Pennington of Hazel Park and the Ralph Braidwoods of Birmingham.
