

Hog Calling Contest Highlights Roast

By ELIZABETH VAN LOAN
MI 7-2324

A hog calling contest will be one of the highlights of the annual corn roast Saturday at Bras Trees Association. The day will start at 10 a.m. with a sailboat race for the youngsters at the pond between Bryn Mawr and Ballantrac. At 2 p.m. the young fry will convene again for relay races and games. A corn-shucking contest will provide not only fun but the "piece de resistance" for the day. A feast of corn and hot dogs for the children will end the afternoon's activities.

gather round a bonfire for their corn and hot dogs. The hog calling contest, relay races and games will follow. Under direction of Mrs. John Gorsuch of Quanton Road, social chairman of the association, committees have been formed. Mr. and Mrs. George Bywater are in charge of reservations. Mr. and Mrs. Willard McPhee are taking care of the food. The games are being organized by the James Martins and William A. Bachmans.

THE ANNUAL fall tea of the Walnut Lake Women's Club will be held on Tuesday at 1 p.m. at the home of Mrs. William Croy, 5450 Putnam Drive.

Chairman of the tea committee is Mrs. Julian Ofenstein, president of the club. She will be assisted by members of the executive board.

Guests are welcome and a special invitation is extended to women living in the Walnut Lake and Meadow Lake school areas. Anyone interested may contact Mrs. Ofenstein.

MR. AND MRS. Robert Mooney and their children, Sharon, Bob and Cathy, of Middleton Court spent Labor Day weekend at Glen Lake where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Brady, Mrs. Mooney's parents.

Also visiting with the Bradys was Mr. Mooney's father from Lansing.

Gagler, Mrs. Paul Walters, Mrs. Al France, Mrs. Donald McNab, Mrs. Robert Duffield of Detroit and Mrs. Mary De Boe, Mrs. Duffield's aunt, also of Detroit. If Eastmoor Road seemed livelier than usual on Aug. 24, it might have been due to the return of the Smiths, Schumaker and Gullio families who all got back from vacations that day.

MR. AND MRS. Ralph Gordon Smith and their daughters had spent a week at Houghton Lake. Mr. and Mrs. William Schumaker and their four children, after a visit in Burlington, Iowa, with his father, Curt Schumaker, had gone north for a stay at Port Austin.

The Richard Gullios and their four youngsters had been in Akron visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Richards. The Gullios spent a day at the Firestone Country Club during the American Golf Classic. They were part of Arnie's Army but left Akron before Palmer's defeat by Johnny Pot.

ALSO BACK on the 24th was the John Owen family of W. Newland Drive, who had spent the week camping at Harrisville State Park.

While there, they visited with neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Don Juhl, of Blackburn Drive, who were vacationing at Higgins Lake.

Other vacationers at Higgins Lake were Mr. and Mrs. James Maunders and their children of Idlewild Court who returned on Aug. 28 from a two-week stay.

DR. AND MRS. JOHN R.

Caldwell and their five children of Bryn Mawr Road are back from a two-week vacation at Ives Lake in the Upper Peninsula.

Mr. Everett Gettles of Weston, O., returned home on Aug. 26 after a week's visit with his daughter's family, the Jack Kellers of Woodwind Drive.

Members of the nominating committee of the Northwest Lakes Neighborhood of Southern Oakland Girl Scouts met at the home of the committee chairman, Mrs. Gordon Fowle, of Inveray Road, on Aug. 21.

Present were Mrs. Daniel Smith, Mrs. Robert Mooney and Mrs. Milton Skutt. Also attending was Mrs. Jay Rohwedder, district adviser for the Birmingham district.

Two new families from Texas have moved into New England Estates.

In the former Carter residence on Blackburn Drive are Mr. and Mrs. Lesman Cox and their children, Denise, 9, and Leaman Jr., 7. The Coxes are from Fort Worth.

From Dallas, the H. F. O'Malley Jr. family moved into 4182 W. Newland Drive on Aug. 21. The O'Malleys have two children.

SEAN, 18, will return to Texas to attend North Texas State University in Denton, Bert, 17, is a senior at Bloomfield Hills High.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Halstead from Toronto have moved into the former Zumbur residence on Kingzmill Drive.

They have two daughters and two sons, Jolin, Julie, Mark and Eric.

MRS. GRANT

Double-ring Ceremony Unites Couple

Kirk in the Hills was the scene for the Aug. 31 wedding of Judith Ann Evans and Carl E. Kirk.

She is the daughter of Mrs. Irving W. Evans, 6281 Lahser, Birmingham, and the late Mr. Evans. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roland E. Grant of South Bend, Ind.

For the double-ring ceremony, the bride chose an antique white satin gown with lace trimming the scoop neckline. The overskirt of the sheath gown was also bordered with lace. A large flower caught her illusion veil. The bridal bouquet was a cascade of album lilies.

MATRON OF honor was Mrs. Geraldine McClain of Columbus, O., cousin of the bride. Bridesmaids were Barbara Hartwig of Detroit and Nancy Hitt of Livonia.

They wore aqua peau de sole dresses with short sleeves and bell skirts. Aqua berries surrounded by deeper shaded aqua leaves comprised their headresses. They carried bouquets of assorted greens and ivory glamsilias.

The bridegroom asked Jim Grant of South Bend, Ind., to assist him as best man. Seating guests were Robert Elder of Grand Rapids and Jim Montgale of Detroit.

Following a wedding trip to the Poconos, the newlyweds will make their home in Royal Oak.

THE ROBERT DONLEYS of Brecht, Pa. had spent Labor Day weekend on Lake St. Clair aboard their cabin cruiser, "Elboca." They were joined on Monday by the Rev. John Root and his family for a day of fishing.

During August, the Donleys and their daughters, Ely and Cathy, spent three weeks cruising around Georgian Bay.

Jack Bachman, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Bachman, of Loch Lomond Drive, returned on Monday from a visit with the George Hedges family of Pebbleshire Road at the Hedges' summer home on Diamond Lake.

JACK WAS just in time for his sister Barbara's 17th birthday on Sept. 3, but a day late for the family celebration on the first of Barbara's and Ely's birthdays. Ely, his younger brother, was 13 on Aug. 27.

Coming from Detroit for the occasion were the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rittinger, their son, Philip, and Miss Leona Nieboiski.

THE ROBERT Piersons of Middleton Drive attended the Derby Day dinner dance last Friday evening at Plum Hollow Golf Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Walters of Kingsmill Drive entertained a score of friends with a party and midnight buffet last Saturday.

Houseguests last week of the Martin Healesys of Suters Lane were Mr. and Mrs. William Allen and their three children and Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood Jackson and their son, all of Westchester, Ill.

WHAT COULD be nicer on your birthday than to have your granddaughter bake a cake for you?

That is what 11-year-old Kathy Ware did for her grandmother, Mrs. Ben Jenkins, of Melbourne Beach, Fla., who is spending the summer with her daughter's family, the John Wares of Suters Lane.

Kathy's pink and white creation was the highlight of a small dinner party on Aug. 24 in Mrs. Jenkins' honor. Also present were Mr. Ware's sister and niece, Mrs. Arthur Meyer and Pam of Williams Lake and Mrs. Anna Le Blond.

ON THE 28TH, Mrs. Jenkins and Mrs. Ware were guests of Mrs. Robert Mahler of Woodwind Drive at a luncheon and bridge.

Other guests were Mrs. Frank
