

It Isn't Any Secret Anymore

Eccentric Photographer William Henri Thom (more informally known as Bill) has recently been accompanied on society assignments by a pretty young lady who ISNT a reporter. Her name is Susan Jane Peters and, as of this week, she's wearing Bill's ring third finger, left hand. Susan is the daughter of Robert G. Peters, Jr., of Oak St., Birmingham, and the late Mrs. Peters, and Bill's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Alan Thom of W. Surrey Road, Foxcroft. Sue is a graduate of Seaholm High School and attended Findlay College, Findlay, O., where she was affiliated with Kappa Kappa Gamma Sorority. Her fiance, a graduate of Bloomfield Hills High School, attended Rochester Institute of Technology. The couple has set June 6 as the date of their marriage, to be solemnized in Christ Church Cranbrook.

Nuptials Newlyweds Take Trip to Northern Mich.

covered with white satin, was adorned with white orchids.
The junior Mrs. McKee, as attendant, was dressed in an oyster white silk brocade suit and cranberry red accessories. Her head-dress was a velvet band with a brief veil in the cranberry hue. Her corsage was of red sweet-heart rosebuds.

MRS. HAIG was in a costume suit of beige-hued imported Alencon lace with sable collar, and a pillbox hat of turquoise feathers and veiling. The bridegroom's mother was in a pastel green silk suit and matching accessories. Mrs. Haig's orchid corsage was in golden tones and Mrs. McKee's in green tones.
The newly-wedded Mr. and Mrs. McKee left by motor for a two weeks' trip in northern Michigan. When they return, they will live temporarily in Birmingham.

FOR THE double-ring ceremony, the bride chose an ivory peau de soie gown with a controlled bouffant sheath skirt. Alencon lace accented the front of the skirt and formed the bateau neckline and sleeves. A taria of imported pearl blossoms secured her veil of French silk illusion. The bridal bouquet was a crescent of white sweetheart roses and ivy, centered with a white cattleya orchid.
The bride's honor attendant was Mrs. Milton Mackler of Birmingham. Mrs. Charles Van Norwick and Mrs. Robert Harris, both of Birmingham, were bridesmaids.

Honor Guests Are True Thoroughbreds!

An open house and tea honoring patronesses invited to the Michigan Animal Rescue League and antique dealers responsible for the Bloomfield Antique Show at Cranbrook Sept. 12, 13 and 14 was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Richard Walsh on Beach Road, Aug. 28.
Guests of honor were the thoroughbred Collie and angora cat purchased by the Walshes at the Shelter in Pontiac a year ago. Proceeds from the show benefit the Shelter.

BIRMINGHAM - Bloomfield patronesses invited to the tea were Mrs. Clifford B. West, Mrs. Sidney Norwood, Mrs. Roger I. Marquis, Mrs. Donald S. Patterson, Mrs. John Parrott, Mrs. Graham Shinnick, Mrs. Dan Watts and Mrs. James A. Breesford.
Others include Mrs. Dexter Craig, Mrs. J. Gardner Lewis, Miss Jeannette Hubbard, Mrs. Robert Skillman, Mrs. Otter Matthews, Mrs. Charles F. Delbridge, Jr. and Mrs. John A. Pflug.
