Bianchi Gown Worn by Bride For Ceremony

The First Methodist Church of Birmingham was the setting of the wedding and reception Saturday of Joan Elaine Scafuri, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Scafuri of Croft Road, Birmingham, and Arthur Ticknor Huey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sandmeyer Huey of Glen Arbor, Mich.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a Bianchi gown of bouquet taffeta fashioned with a controlled skirt and detachable chapel-length train. Seed pearls and crystal floral beading accented the latest neckline. Her headpiece consisted of a bouffant veil of French silk illusion falling from a petite pillbox. She carried a cascade of small lilies and stephanotis.

The bride's sister, Janet, was maid of honor. Her bridesmaids included Adele Huey of Glen Arbor; Janet Thoresen of Bloomfield Hills, and Sara Huey as junior bridesmaid.

THE ATTENDANTS were autumn gold peau jolie, also styled with controlled skirts. Their Dior bow headpiece were of the same material. They carried cascades of mums and ivy.

Richard King Huey II of Glen Arbor served as best man for his brother. Ushers were James Bradburn of Birmingham; William Labalter of West Branch; Ralph and Robert Scafuri of Birmingham, and Elwyn Steuernal of West Branch.

Mrs. Scafuri wore a gold brocade jacket dress with matching gold accessories. Mrs. Huey wore a beige faille jacket dress with lace top. Her hat was a flat bow of blue ostrich feathers.

After the afternoon reception, the newlyweds left for a honeymoon to Florida and the Bahamas. They will make their home in Glen Arbor.
