Couple Wed

A former Birmingham resident, Phyllis Ruth McNellis, became the bride of Charles Robert Hill at Rockledge Presbyterian Church, Rockledge, Fla., on Sept. 7. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip S. McNellis of Pittsford, N. Y. The bridegroom's parents are the Robert S. Hills of Merritt Island, Fla. The bride asked Mrs. Haven Sweet of Boston to attend her as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Carol Greer of Burlington, Vt., and Barbara Hill, sister of the bridegroom. Assisting the bridegroom as best man was John Greene of Cocoa, Fla. Seating guests were Warren P. Kendall, Wilmette, Ill., Gary Willis, Rockledge, Fla., Michael Thomas, Brevard, N. C., and David McNellis, Pittsford, N. Y., brother of the bride. Following a wedding trip to the Bahamas, the newlyweds will make their home in Rockledge, Fla.

The Gilleys Return From European Tour

by ELIZABETH YATES
MI 6-1682

At the beginning of summer Mrs. Lawrence Gilley of Meadowlane Drive journeyed to Montreal where she joined the State College of Iowa-Study Tour and sailed on the Empress of Europe for 10 weeks in Europe. The tour group of 42 included college professors, their wives and eligible former students. They began their land journey in picturesque Scotland. London they attended the London Symphony and the stage play "Oliver." They were met at Oxford by one of their three guides and stayed in the 300-year-old dorm of Jesus College for two weeks. They attended the Shakespearean Theatre at Stratford-On-Avon before departing for Hook of Holland and Amsterdam.

MR. GILLEY, his wife and tour group in Cologne, Germany, and accompanied them for three weeks. They attended lectures in Bonn and at the University of Heidelberg with the attending students. A boat trip down the Rhine River to the city of Cologne and countryside was another memorable experience before traveling on through Switzerland. The Gilleys were impressed with the Italian art, an evening gondola trip in Florence and their stay in the city of Venice. In Austria they attended the Mozart Festival in Vienna and spent two weeks studying modern Europe at the University of Vienna.

COMMITTEE CHAIRMAN are program, Mrs. James Shannon of Parkman Drive; civic improvement, Mrs. Wallace Ehrlich of Westview Court; ways and means, Mrs. Donald Arndt of Parkman Drive; publicity, Mrs. Thomas Colley of Parkman Drive; international cooperation, Marty Burns of Parkman Drive; and membership, Mrs. Raymond Conlon of Kernway Drive. It was a happy birthday dinner party at the James Shannons of Parkman Drive honoring Shannon on Friday evening. Joining in the celebration were the Gerald Shannon family of Kernway Drive and the August Beauchamps of Detroit.

CAROL COLLEY of Parkman Drive with the help of her mother, Mrs. Thomas Colley, entertained at a back to school luncheon on Thursday afternoon. Her guests were area friends Debbie Rogers, Andy Miller, Leslie Kezlarian, Lynn Skinner, Bonnie Glasgow and Sue Hubbard, all sophomores at Bloomfield Hills High School. The Lewis Benchards of Hickory Heights Drive and the Albert Lawellins of Devonshire Road departed recently for the Lawellins' summer home near Traverse City. From there they plan to travel on through northern Michigan to view the Mackinac Bridge, tour Mackinac Island and cross over the new International Bridge at Sault Ste. Marie, Ont.

SON RICHARD accepted a position with Reichhold Chemicals in Los Angeles, Calif., and is now residing there.

The Benchards are proud to announce the arrival of new grandson, Thomas Gary Kornbacher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth L. Kornbacher of Glendora, Calif.

He was born on Aug. 7 and has an eighteen-month-old brother, David Kenneth. Mr. Kornbacher is the former president of the Michigan State Bar Association. Mr. and Mrs. William Niemi and son, Bill, of Walnut Hill Drive spent the last three weeks of August enjoying cottage life at Holland, Mich.

Visiting them for a week there were relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith and children, Greg and Nancy, of Grand Rapids.

The Frederick Burges of Far Hill Drive and daughter, Nancy, have returned home from three weeks of cottage living at Long Lake near Traverse City.

Daughter Barbara has been a counselor at the Rooper Day Camp for the past eight weeks. She flew to Traverse City to spend the last week of vacation with the family.

Barbara will be packing her luggage and leaving next week for her junior year at Michigan State.

W. Orchard Hill Drive spent their two-week vacation near the Burges on Long Lake. Another Birmingham family, the Charles Harrison, took a cottage near the group for a three-week stay.

Chuck Booth of W. Orchard Hill Drive and Doug Comb of Orchard Hill Drive have returned home after four weeks at Camp Charlevoix.

They are the sons of the Charles Booths and the Matland Combs. A five-week vacation stay at Walloon Lake near Petoskey was also enjoyed this summer by the Charles Booths and friends.

Tehoy Family Holds Reunion in Chicago

The William J. Tehoys, 8890 Valley Hill Road, Bloomfield Hills, recently returned from Chicago. They drove Mrs. Eva Tehoy, his mother, back to her home there. While here, many parties were given in her honor of her 83rd birthday. William III flew into Chicago from the University of Miami to meet the family for a round party at the Empire Room, Palmer House.

Have You Met...

The new residents of 4635 Hedgewood Drive? Mr. and Mrs. David C. Jamieson and their children moved here from Detroit on Aug. 2. Steven S. Brian, 7, Gary S. Gregory, 3, and Christopher, 2, complete the family roster. Jamieson is an engineer with Ford Motor Co. The Jamiesons are interested in bowling and golfing.
