MRS. JENSEN

Unity Temple Scene of Rites

Joan Fredericks Loveland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Loveland of Westbourne Drive, Birmingham, spoke her marriage vows Aug. 24 to Pvt. John Jay Jensen, United States Army, son of Mrs. Shelburne Pinkerton and Thomas E. Jensen, both of Detroit.

The candlelight ceremony took place in Unity Temple and was followed by a reception in the home of the bride's parents. The short bridal dress was fashioned of white brocade, the outfit completed by a veiled machine pill box and a bridal bouquet of white carnations and orchids.

BLOOMFIELD WEST Novelty Races, Games Highlight Braes Picnic

By ELIZABETH VAN LOAN MI 7-2324

Helium balloons, a tug of war and sack race will be some of the highlights for children at the annual Braes of Bloomfield Association picnic to be held this Sunday. Time and place are 3 p.m. in the vacant lot in back of the Bergmann residence at 6096 Darra-moor Road. New families are especially invited.

There will be hot dogs, baked beans, cole slaw, cake, ice cream, coffee, beer and soft drinks.

CHAIRMAN of the event is Barney Tyler of Eastmoor Road, who is social chairman of the association.

In charge of the various committees are Neale Schermerhorn and Richard Bergmann, food; Frank Price, coffee; Harold Fet-tyer, beer and soft drinks; and Dick Gullid, tables.

Home from European vacations are Mr. and Mrs. John Kattke of Kingsmill Drive and Mrs. Robert Kreuz of Braemoor Trail with a unanimous vote for Switzerland as the most interesting country visited.

MRS. KREUZ was away for two months sailing over on the Margennis and returning on the Caronia. She toured Europe "from the bottom of Italy to the top of Scotland" which she coupled with Switzerland as her two favorite places.

The Kattkes flew both ways and spent 19 days in Europe starting and ending in London. They visited Brussels, Luxembourg, Austria, Liechtenstein, Switzerland, Italy, France and Monte Carlo.

From each place they brought back a doll and bracelet charm for their daughter, Virginia.

SUMMER - LONG vacations have ended for the Leigh, Eisen, Brinks and Jack families.

The John Leighs and children Charles and Laura of Braemoor Trail spent the summer at their cottage on Lake Tomahawk in Minocqua, Wis.

The Robert Eisens of Eastmoor Road with Randi and Robert were at their cottage on Black Lake, here in Michigan.

The John Brinks of Woodwind Drive spent the summer on the East Coast while the Clifford Jacks of Quanton Road chose the West Coast.

SALLY, Leslie, Bill, Ellen and Laura Brinks and their parents divided their time in Maine, New Hampshire and Massachusetts arriving back in Kirtwood the day before the start of school.

The Jacks and their four youngsters rented a house in Woodland Hills, a suburb of Los Angeles, and spent the summer exploring California.

They visit San Francisco, Yosemite, Disneyland, Malibu and made a trip to Mexico. They took 10 leisurely days to drive home with stopovers in Salt Lake City, Mt. Rushmore and Yellowstone.

OTHER RETURNING vacationers include the Harvey Kreipkes and son Larry of Killebrennan Road who arrived home on Sept. 1 from an eastern vacation. They visited Niagara Falls, Montreal, Quebec, Maine, Boston and Plymouth Rock.

At the falls they had dinner in the Seagram Tower with its view of the falls and the city.

Also back from the East are Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bingham and their children, Tom, Pat, John and Sara, of E. Newland Drive.

Miss Werner Becomes Bride Of Mr. Moore

Mary Josephine Werner repeated her nuptial vows to Charles Arthur Moore on Aug. 24 at First Presbyterian Church. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Werner, 3688 Darcy Drive, Birmingham. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald A. Moore of St. Joseph, Mich.

The bride chose a street length dress of white organza over taf-feta with lace on the skirt and bodice. The shoulder length veil was secured by a jeweled crown. She carried a white satin prayer book with an orchid and lilies of the valley.

PRISCILLA Holmes of Birmingham was the honor attend-ant. She wore royal blue satin and carried a spray of gold car-nations.

The bridegroom asked his brother, William Moore of St. Joseph to assist him as best man. Seating guests were John J. Werner Jr. of Birmingham and James Dahlstrom of St. Joseph. The couple will reside in Hill-dale, Mich.
