

The Birmingham Eccentric

Thursday, September 12, 1963

For most of a man's working life he quite rightly looks forward to the time when he may forget the early morning alarm to rouse him for his day's labors, be they mental or physical. This objective is a right one, for it ought to maintain in the worker's mind the fact that, if industrious, if thrifty, retirement should be the reward. But retirement should not allow the man "... to rust into decay."

Trip to Poconos Follows Ceremony

A trip to the Poconos followed the marriage Saturday of Nancy Jane Trowbridge and William Curtis Wright. The couple repeated their vows at a double ring ceremony in the First Presbyterian Church of Birmingham, after which a reception and buffet supper was given at the Village Woman's Club.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Trowbridge of Pemberton Road, Bloomfield Hills, and her husband's parents are the Maurice C. Wright of Power, Valley Road, Bloomfield Hills.

Nancy Jane walked up the aisle on the arm of her father wearing a gown of ivory peau de soie fashioned with a controlled skirt, a bateau neckline combining Alencon lace and tiny pearls and sleeves that came to a point over her wrists. Her mantilla of Alencon lace was also embroidered in pearls, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white roses, stephanotis and ivory leaves.

BARBARA ANN Trowbridge was her sister's maid of honor, and bridesmaids included Jean Ann Wright, Nancy Guile of Flint; Wendy Jean Sanderson, Bridget Gurrin of Dayton, O., and Cynthia Addison of Sturgis, Mich.

They all wore floor-length gowns of emerald green chiffon, the sheath skirts accented by soft panels of the chiffon at the back. An Empire band of satin circled the bodices, and the same satin was used to form their draped circle headpieces. Their flowers were pink carnations and garnet roses.

Wayne W. Wright was best man, and seating the guests were Daniel B. Groves, Edward Bolanowski of Flint; Larry Stecco of Flushing, Mich.; Mike Butler of Hillford and Gary Smith of Kalamazoo.

Following their wedding trip, the couple will be at home after Nov. 1 on Oxford Drive, Birmingham.

Christ Church DAC Begins Fall Season With Party

Patricia Ann Christiansen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elno Narme of Cedar Bend Drive, Bloomfield Hills, spoke her marriage vows Aug. 31 to James Hurd Scott, son of Mr. and Mrs. George D. Scott of Birmingham.

The couple was married in Christ Church Cranbrook, after which a reception was given at Forest Lake Country Club.

The bride wore a gown of imported silk peau de soie designed with a modish bodice of pearl-encrusted Alencon lace, a belted skirt and polonaise back drape which fell into a chapel train. Her French illusion veil was secured to a pill box trimmed in small roses at the back, and she carried a bridal bouquet of cabochon roses.

ANN SHAWL was maid of honor, and bridesmaids included Sharon Lee Spitzer of Park Ridge, Ill., a cousin of the bride; Polly Walker, Karen McFajalin and Lindar Rossan, all of Birmingham. They wore gowns of champagne silk, with matching Dior head bows, and carried bouquets of lime green grapes and autumn wheat.

Ty Cool of Albany, Ga., formerly of Bloomfield Hills, was best man, and seating the guests were Ric Miles of Detroit; Jerry Bergmoss, Chuck Mayne, Dennis Nurne and Tom Fry.

Following a trip to New York, the couple is at home in Ypsilanti, where the bridegroom attends Eastern University.

Pair Takes European Trip

MRS. WRIGHT

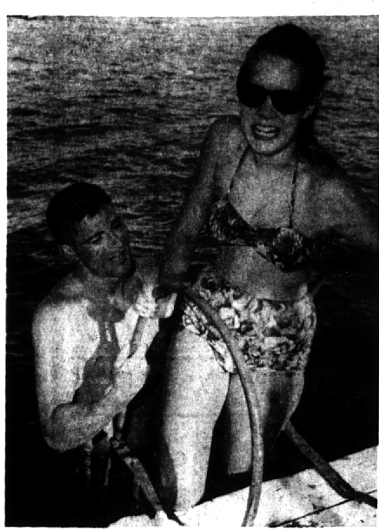

Scarsdale, N. Y., was the background for the Sept. 4 wedding of Mary Elizabeth Bannard and Noel Paul Stookey, both former residents of Birmingham. Nuptial vows were exchanged in Hitchcock Presbyterian Church.

Following a reception in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homes Bannard of Scarsdale, the couple left on a European trip during which the bridegroom—by member of the famed Peter, Paul and Mary folk-singing trio—will do some special new recordings for radio and TV. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Stookey of W. Lincoln, Birmingham.

THE BRIDE WORE for her wedding an Empire gown of off-white peau de soie designed with a self-bowd waistline and a deep added hem to the skirt appliqued in the same rose patterned lace as the mantilla she wore. The dress was buttoned to the waist in the back by self-covered buttons and had wrist-length sleeves.

Among locales attending the wedding were Tom Halsted, Jim Mosby, Bob and Darcy Bannard, Mrs. Robert Mosby, Mr. and Mrs. George Liverance and Carol Dekker.

On their return from Europe, the newlyweds will make their home in Scarsdale.

Last Fling at Summer!

Bob Brink and Sandie Eakins were among localites attending last week's annual beach party and picnic at Orchard Lake Country Club sponsored by the Birmingham Wellesley Club. Ivy League undergraduates living in this area made up the guest list. Swimming, tennis and supper were on the agenda.

High Style to Mark Forest Lake Party

In a fall setting designed and created by Mr. Russell of Demery's—Birmingham, ladies of Forest Lake Country Club will present and model fall fashions by Demery's Wednesday, Sept. 18. The program will be supervised by Esther M. Wagner, publicity director for Demery's. Gowns of Bloomfield Hills will feature hair fashions.

As an entrance wear, Mr. Russell has chosen an elaborate arch colored in delectable shades of pink and lavender. Walking through this bit of froth will be models Mrs. Elwood Engel, Mrs. Vernon Mills, Mrs. Russell Zink, Mrs. Donald P. Green, Mrs. Andrew Park, Mrs. William M. Hutchins, Mrs. William G. Crewey, Mrs. George A. Greig, Mrs. Glenn A. Sanford, Mrs. Kenneth J. Palmer and Mrs. John Maher.

Three small fry will perhaps be scene-stealers. Laura Beck and Ronald and Francine Michie will set the style pace for pre-schoolers.

STROLLING musicians will keep in tune with the season and entertain guests with such tunes as "September Song," "Tia Autumn," and "Falling Leaves."

To fall in line with the scheme, table decor will combine pink linens and centerpieces of pink and lavender in brandy snifters draped with clusters of grapes. Those will be offered as table prizes along with various door prizes.

This is a popular event and reservations have been pouring in. Bridge will follow the show for those who desire.

Chairman of the affair is Mrs. Thomas W. Anderson, she will be assisted by Mesdames Nell Michie, Harold Reck, Albert Conner, Norman Reck, Carl L. Horner, Matthew Cleverly, Mattson Corman and Bernard Girard.

Christening Signals a Family Reunion for the Buells

By MARTI CAHN
MI 6-2890

William Chapin Buell, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Buell, Sr., of W. Brown St., Birmingham, was christened Sunday, Aug. 31 at the First Presbyterian Church. Rev. Jack W. Angerman officiated at the 9:45 a.m. ceremony.

The baby's christening dress was previously worn by his mother and by his maternal grandfather, William H. Colcord of Philadelphia. The gown was made of delicate handwoven cloth and was exquisitely hand-tailored.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald J. Buell, grandparents and former Birmingham residents who came from their Delray Beach, Fla. home for the ceremony, gave the christening brunch at Bloomfield Hills Country Club.

Friends and relatives present were Mrs. Thomas P. Archer (aunt) and daughter Elizabeth of Grosse Pointe; Dr. and Mrs. Edward Mair (Mrs. M. is another aunt) of Indian Village; Mrs. Herbert H. Mills of Bloomfield Hills (Mrs. H. is paternal grandmother) and Dr. Jack B. Hassberger of Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald J. Buell, Jr., also former Birmingham residents, have returned to their home in St. Petersburg, Fla. Mr. Buell, with children Donald J. and David, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leon J. Hart (Jane Buell's sister and brother-in-law) in their Puritan Ave. home.

Mr. Buell joined his family here before their departure Aug. 23.

STEVE SENNEFF, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Senneff of Westwood Drive, has a keen interest in being an air-pilot. Steve doesn't want to fly the F-30's that his dad navigated during the Korean War. The big commercial plane he traveled aboard recently with grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Randall Roman, is more to his liking.

Mr. and Mrs. Roman stopped by Birmingham, following a vacation at their Crystal Lake summer cottage, to visit daughter, Beth; son-in-law, Jack, and grandchildren Steve, Mike, Timmy and Robert. Steve Senneff, (oldest grandson) was anticipating his sixth birthday celebration. Loving grandparents made it an exciting event by taking him to their home in Pokin, Ill., via commercial airlines. The visit included a birthday party.

Our pilot-to-be was all set for the return trip home, alone and by plane. However, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Roman, aunt and uncle, generously decided to drive Steve home and remain here for a five-day visit before returning to Illinois.

Chances are that Steve may change his mind and become a lawyer, same as his dad, but presently he is much too excited about being in the first grade at the Holy Name School to give the question much thought!

NINTH GRADE students at Cranbrook and Kingswood, who were so eagerly looking forward to summer vacation last June, are now looking forward to a three-week motor vacation which took them first to Kennebunkport, Me. A most delightful surprise during their stay at the "Colony" was meeting (by chance) Mr. and SEPT. 29 will see resumption of Sunday service in the dining rooms, which are traditionally closed on Sundays throughout the summer.

Those in charge of the social events include Chairman Frederick J. Kaiser, John T. Annas, Thomas J. Bolton, Clyde P. Crane Jr., Ray E. Forsyth, William A. Prew, G. W. Van Lopik, W. Harold Lightbody and Jack A. Tompkins.

Oakland Hills CC Plans Celebration

A champagne dinner dance will be held at Oakland Hills Country Club Saturday to celebrate completion of the "smart new look" in the main lounge and dining rooms.

Cocktails will be served in the Casino from 7 p.m. to 8 p.m., and a steak dinner by Chef Reilly will be held from 8 p.m. to 9 p.m. Eddie Santini and his orchestra will provide the dance music.

Mrs. Flanders Entertains At Luncheon

Mrs. Phyllis E. Flanders of Brafferton Drive, Bloomfield Hills, entertained at a luncheon Tuesday, at the DAC.

Her guests included board members and committee chairmen of the Federation of Women's Clubs of Metropolitan Detroit.

editor of the federation's official publication, The Club Women's Bulletin, and the purpose of the luncheon was to discuss forthcoming bulletins and the federation's future program.

INVITED were Mrs. Alfred G. Wilson, honorary president, Mrs. Sterling S. Richhart, Mrs. Alexander E. LaPointe and Mrs. Nathaniel Banks, respectively president and first and second vice presidents.

Others were Mesdames Zalc Woodford Schneider, Florence E. Pierce, Albert Blixt, R. D. Gatherman, Stewart D. Schweitzer, Aaron E. Wilcox and Lloyd Paterson.
