HOLIDAY FESTIVITIES
will be here before you know it!

Does your house need some sprucing up before then. Are the draperies a bit droopy? Does the cocktail table yearn for a candleabra? How about a Spanish sconce or a French mirror for that wall above the marble shelf?
Does the sofa need a bit of redoing—in a cover selected from the new Fall fabrics? Do you have a secret desire to express yourself? Let's do it with wallpaper, mural or foil, or maybe one of the popular vinyls.

We invite you to stop in or call for an appointment that we may show you the complete refurbishing plan we can design for you. (You'll be pleasantly surprised in what your decorating budget can do for you)
Excuse us if we do a little name dropping: Cabin Craft; Schumacher; Meyer; Gunther; Martini; Van Luit; Gullistan; Baker; Greeff; Piazza; Birge; Hexter; Strahan; Dahlgren; Custom bedding; Lazyback pillows. These are just a few among the numerous brands we have available.

By ELEANOR NELSEN MI 7-0956

The league began their season on Monday.

The women began to bowl on Tuesday at 10 a.m. Mrs. Herman Frankel is president of the league.
Returning to spend two weeks in Florida each summer has become somewhat of a pattern for the Clayton Findley family of White Pine Drive.
Carole and Becky accompanied their parents for the motoring trip during August. Most of their time was spent in the Jacksonville area where they once resided and had many friends to visit.

SARASOTA and the beach also claimed their time and they sighted a school of porpoise in play which was quite amusing.
Before Joan Loveland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Loveland of Westbourne Court, became the bride of John Jensen on Aug. 24, she was the guest of honor at several pre-nuptial showers.
Mrs. Willard Strand of Westbourne Court and her daughter, Kathy, hosted a personal shower for Joan on Aug. 20, while Mrs. Charles VanLaanen of Northlake extended invitations to friends of Joan's to honor her at a miscellaneous shower on Aug. 22.

THE BRIDEGROOM'S mother, Mrs. Shelburne Pinkerton, gave the rehearsal dinner at her home on Granville Ave. in Detroit.
Since the wedding the Loveland family has been preparing to move to Grand Rapids which will soon be their home.
Mr. and Mrs. Alexander S. Phillips of Breckenridge Lane invited a number of friends to the churning of their daughter, Stacey Ann, which took place on Sunday at St. Nicholas Church in Detroit.

Pat Jaeggi, who lives at 244 S. Williamsbury, received $10 after his balloon was sent back from Northwood, Ont.
Dave Stetson of 2703 Heathfield was given $5 after his balloon came back from Harwick Township in Ontario.

THE ONLY first hand reaction from the winners came from Pat Jaeggi who said to his mom, "Look Mom, I'm rich."
Kerry was on vacation when his bond was delivered and received by his grandmother.
The Stetson family has since moved and the prize money had to be sent to Dave.
The officers and board members of the PTO of the George Gough Booth School held a meeting on Aug. 29 at the home of Mrs. Edward Sewell of Paterson Drive at which they discussed and planned the activities of the organization for the school year.

Seating guests were Terry Streeter of California, George Motoc of Detroit, Michael A'Hearn of Birmingham and John Popenea and Michael Popenea, both of Pontiac. The flower girl was Cynthia A'Hearn, sister of the bride. She wore a floor-length dress of gold satin with a small colonial bouquet of daisies.
Chris A'Hearn, brother of the bride, was ring-bearer.
A dinner and reception at St. George's Cathedral Hall followed the ceremony.
