When a change of social pace seems indicated, can't be said that localites don't go all the way! Last week's sophisticated tempo, stepped up by the Mary Martin preview at the Fisher, went out the window this week with a whoop 'n' a holler—accent being put on three shivarees as wild west as a Davey Crockett movie. Saturday was the day that saw a Las Vegas party at Forest Lake Country Club (over 400 members and guests dined, danced and gambled away fake money); a chuck wagon dinner at Birmingham Country Club, where everyone arrived decked as Lauries, Curleys or A-doo Annies; a Roundup in Franklin, sponsored annually by the Community Association, which included everything from a parade, to a country fair, to contests and a beauty queen, to barbequed food for the milling mobs.

The Westchester Association held a get-together Sept. 7 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Marshke of Middlebury. Mr. Marshke is president of the association this year.

The party was given the name of Ship Ahoy, but it was a bit chilly for swimming in the Marshke pool. The evening's festivities began with games in the form of horse races at 7 p.m. after which a buffet supper was served to approximately 60 guests.

They then danced on the Marshke patio. Purpose of the affair was to acquaint some of the new residents with their neighbors.

A group from the Westchester Women's Club met for lunch and an afternoon of bridge at the home of Mrs. Henry Gluckstad of Farmington Drive, Sept. 12.

THE FIRST general meeting of all the Westchester Women's Club will be held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Harry Boehle Jr., 3699 W. Bradford Drive. Brunch will be served from 9:30 until 11 a.m.

The club has many plans for the coming year, including personally-conducted tours of interesting places in the Detroit and surrounding area.

Chairman is Mrs. Robert Riender. There will be a short business meeting in connection with the social where new board members will be introduced.

Hugh Edward Marshke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Irving P. Marshke of Middlebury Lane, has received notice to report to his induction center in Pontiac Oct. 8. Mr. Marshke's engagement to Sandra Elliott became official when it was announced last month. A wedding in August of '64 is being planned.

MICHAEL HENRY Littig, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Littig of East Lansing, was christened by the Rev. Theodore Wuggazer in Redeemer Lutheran Church, Birmingham, Sept. 8. Godparents were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brockhouse of Davenport, Iowa.

Out-of-town guests at the ceremony were the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James Littig, Sr., of Rock Island, Ill., and John Littig, also of Rock Island.

From Cleveland, Ohio, came Mr. and Mrs. Einar G. Carlson. Following the christening the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gluckstad of Farmington Drive, hosted a brunch at the Birmingham Country Club.

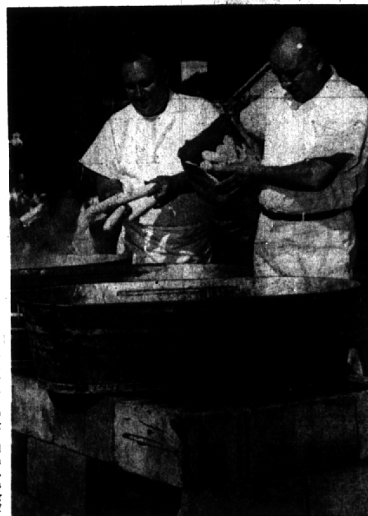

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Smith of S. Cranbrook Cross spent a week at Lake Leelanau with their children, Ron, Valerie, Bradley and Kim.

Water skiing was the mainstay of their vacation. The boys caught sufficient amounts of fish to prepare two meals. While in the area, they took a side trip to the Sleeping Bear Sand Dunes.

AFTER MR. William Keough of S. Williamsbury returned from a business trip overseas, the entire family took a two-week vacation at the end of August in the area of Glen Arbor on Lake Michigan.

Their children, Patti, Bill and Chipper, water skied while Mom and Dad "just rested," and attended several symposiums held at the Leelanau Lake School. Roscoe Drummond from the New York Herald was among key speakers at the lectures. When the family returned home, young Bill stayed on with friends to do more water skiing. In the meantime Patti joined a group of young people attending a college organizational group of the Christian Science Church which met in Boston. Patti was gone for a week after leaving Aug. 24.
