Harold Fettys Host Foreign Students

By ELIZABETH VAN LOAN
MI 7-2324

The Harold Fetty family of Idlewyle Road was part of Operation Friendship the week end of Sept. 7-8. They were hosts to two University of Michigan graduate students from India.

Dr. Basava Raj of Bangalore is in public health service there and is taking administration courses at Michigan. Mr. Kittanna Raj of South Canara is studying forestry.

The Fettys took their guests on a tour of Detroit and a visit to the cider mill in Franklin.

On the evening of the 7th, 10 families and their student guests from overseas attended a potluck supper at the Church of Our Savior on Middlebelt Road.

MRS. GERALD Berry of Portland Court welcomed members of the Pontiac Newcomers Club to her home for a social home for preceding the group's opening dinner Sept. 11 at K-Palls Lounge & Restaurant in Pontiac.

Mrs. Berry is president of the club. Her cohostess was Mrs. Walter Obenaus, vice president.

Arthur Schwinkendorf is here on a visit from Lake Zurich, Ill. He is staying with his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Gorsuch of Quanton Road.

MR. AND MRS. Donald Ditz of Old Orchard Drive entertained their monthly potluck supper group on Monday night. Coming from Garden City were the Albert Deckers and John Smiths.

Other guests included Mr. and Mrs. Richard Garrett of Dearborn and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Thornwaldsen of Livonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wm. Suhr and son Bill of Pineview Drive returned Monday from a week's vacation in the Ludington-Pentwater area.

MR. AND MRS. Walter Webb of De Bary, Fla., left Sept. 11 after a visit with the John Quinns of Fieldbrook Road.

The Quinns and their daughters, Susan and Nancy, had returned the previous week from a 10-day visit with Mrs. Howard MacDonald at her summer home on Glen Lake.

Robert Clark of Apple Lane was also a guest of Mrs. MacDonald over Labor Day week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard W. Potter of Comfort Drive entertained the Franklin Little League Senators at a barbecue Sept. 7.

Guests included the co-managers of the team, Chuck Lloyd and Stan Alinsky, who is Mrs. Potter's brother.

WILLARD McPHEE won the hog-calling contest at Braes Three Association's annual corn roast Sept. 7.

Champion corn - husker was Marion Swantek. Her mother, Mrs. Raymond Swantek, was also a winner, placing first in the nail and hammer relay race.

In the balloon-throwing contest, Gordon Fowle and his partner, Mrs. Keith Sprigzel, were the winning couple.

Title of "man with the widest shoulders" went to Jack Fraser. Winners of the morning sailboat races were Gregg Ross and brothers Tom and Brad Gorsuch. Beth Anne and James Clifford returned Sept. 8 with their mother, Mrs. Robert Clifford, of Kingsmill Drive after a week's visit in Columbus, Ohio, with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Clifford and Mr. and Mrs. John Selby.

ALSO BACK on the 3rd was the R. E. Hitchcock family of Westmoor Road. With their children, Harriet, Charles and Perry, the Hitchcocks spent a week camping in Ontario's provincial parks.

They traveled as far as Marathon on the north shore of Lake Superior, visiting Wawa, Hawk Junction and the Algoma steel mill on the way.

Mr. and Mrs. Mayford Roark of Raven Road had as week end guests over Labor Day her brother and his family, the Raymond Fields of Pittsburgh.

Three new families in the area all come from within the state.

The Richard C. Pooles who moved into 4185 Ladysmith Road over Labor Day came from Southfield. They have three children, Jane, five; David, three; and Ruth Ann, 18 months.

From Madison Heights have come Mr. and Mrs. Herndon and their four youngsters, Virginia, seven; Kimberlee, five; Patricia, three; and Bill, one. Their new address is 5640 Woodwind Drive.

At 5794 Raven Road are Mr. and Mrs. Emil Coullidge from Detroit. Their children are Christine, 13; Bruce, 11; and Patricia, nine.
