

WNFGA Sets Program for New Season

The Westchester Branch of the WNFGA held a board meeting at the home of the new president, Mrs. Vernon Fitch of Middlebury Sept. 9.

Plans for the coming season were discussed. Foremost is the civic improvement project which will include beautification of the entrance on Maple at Westbourne Drive and Bradford Road. Mrs. Edward Collins is the chairman of this committee.

A MEETING will be held at 8 p.m. Monday at the home of Mrs. Jack Seelye, 770 Cranbrook Road. The program will present Mrs. Dorothy Brooks, floral designer from Pease & Fiorini. Demonstrating unusual arrangements, Mrs. Brooks will make use of home-garden-grown materials as well as commercially-grown flowers.

These artistic creations will be given as door prizes to members and guests. Title of the evening program is "Harvest in our Flower Arrangements."

This year each member who sponsors a new member will be presented with a seedling Bonsoi Tree. Westchester residents interested in joining the Women's National Farm and Garden may contact Mrs. Vincent Kaptur, 2954 Summerville, or Mrs. Vernon Fitch, 2650 Middleburn Lane, before Monday.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Otho Owen Corstaut Jr., 22170 Lahser Road, Birmingham. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Charles Rector, 6755 Lahser Road, Birmingham.

NANCY KAYE Rector, sister of the bridegroom, was honor attendant. Patricia Corstaut, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. They wore teal blue sheaths with matching pillboxes. Their bouquets were tropicana roses in a crescent shape.

The brother of the bride, Otho Owen Corstaut III, was best man. Seating guests were John Archer of Birmingham and John J. Carmichael of Birmingham.

Following a wedding trip to northern Michigan, the couple will make their home in Ferndale.

Bride Wears Mother's Gown For Ceremony

The bride wore her mother's ivory satin wedding gown. The headpiece was a re-embroidered lace pillbox with an ivory illusion shoulder-length veil. An heirloom necklace of sea pearls circled the bride's neck. Her bridal bouquet was made up of staghornias with tropicana roses and ivy.

Major Events Keep Stars in Her Eyes

by MARTI CARN
MI 6-2830

College graduation, a ten-week tour of Europe, a September wedding—any one of these exciting events is enough to put stars in a girl's eyes. Jean Caldwell has experienced all three within the past few months.

Jean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn A. Caldwell of Sandringham Way, graduated from Purdue University in June, boarded a student ship, SS Aurelia, with four Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority sisters for a tour of Europe, which included a week's stay in London as house guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Hoberg. She returned to Birmingham and started on a whirl of bridal parties given in her honor.

Among them was a tea and linen shower given by Mrs. Philip Cartwright of Brookwood. Mrs. Robert Kelley of Detroit and Mrs. Dan Courtney of Franklin were co-hostesses at a luncheon in London at house guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Forester of Pilgrimage Ave. gave a morning coffee. Mrs. P. W. Mensing entertained in her Larchlea Drive home at a paper shower.

Jean became the bride of James Richard Neel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph R. Neel of Indianapolis, on Sept. 14. The groom is also a Purdue University graduate and is a member of Phi Gamma Delta Fraternity.

Mr. and Mrs. Neel will reside in Milwaukee.

BIRMINGHAM AND Bloomfield residents have been on the go for a last summer binge. Many took advantage of the beauty and proximity of vacation resorts near Gaylord.

Hidden Valley accommodated a host of members—their families and friends—among whom were Mr. and Mrs. Jack McPherson of 505 South Glenhurst, the personal Labor Day visitors, and Mr. and Mrs. Dorne Dibble of 2625 East-brook. Mr. and Mrs. Jesse P. Judd, with daughters Nancy and Susan, enjoyed their stay at Hidden Valley and were dinner guests at the Torch Lake summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Drew C. Haneline of Broadway Blvd. The Judds entertained at their Tyrol Lodge room with a cocktail party for Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sheets of Detroit and Rochester; Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Smith of the Towers, Detroit; and Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. H. Burrows of Birmingham.

Mrs. John E. Hauser and daughter Penny of Hamilton Road were accompanied to Hidden Valley by Margarita Espanol, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Juan Carlos Espanol of Montivideo, Uruguay. Margarita is an American Field Service student attending Kingswood School as a senior and living with the Hausers. She was thrilled with new experiences of water skiing and horseback riding.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest T. Hewitt of Ranch Lane, Bloomfield Hills, vacationers at Fisherman's Paradise on Torch Lake, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Welch of Timberlake Road, also Bloomfield Hills, for cocktails at Hidden Valley before the group joined Birmingham friends at the Colonial Inn in Harbor Springs for dinner.

Mrs. George W. Chesley has enjoyed the summer entertaining family and friends at the Chesleys' charming summer home on Big Lake, to which Mr. Chesley commutes from their Bloomfield home. Mr. and Mrs. Chesley entertained Saturday afternoon at a lake nightswimming trip aboard their patio boat. Mr. and Mrs. Clifford L. Rugg of Bloomfield Township were among those present.

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Gray and family of Bloomfield are new summer residents at Big Lake, Gaylord. Their cottage was overflowing with children, friends and out-of-town relatives. Welcome guests were Mrs. W. W. Stuart, Bette Gray's mother from Eugene, Ore., and Miss Elizabeth Fitzgerald (John Gray's aunt) of Rochester, Minn. The Grays enjoy water sports and are active participants. Daughter Sheila was as agile as a sea nymph as she jumped onto her dock from a speed boat rife.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Fennell and daughter Kathy of Franklin were attractive visitors at Hidden Valley Club. Mrs. Fennell and Kathy took advantage of the swimming pool facilities while dad was on the fairways.

Donna and Dianne Richardson, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Richardson, Jr. of North Glen-garry Road, with cousin Bob Powell were weekend guests at Hidden Valley.
