Speir Family Settled In New Georgia Home

EDITOR'S NOTE: While Louise Kramer is on a leave of absence her Beverly Hills neighbor, Mrs. Elli Bluman, will write this column.

The many friends of the Richard Speir family will be pleased to learn that Dick, Peg, and their four children Rick, Chris, Mark, and Susan, are pretty well settled in their new Atlanta, Georgia home, after being transferred there late this summer.

They have joined the local swimming pool association and were, until school began, enjoying a daily swim. Their property is studded with such things as Christmas holly, magnolia, hickory nut, dogwood, pine, and sweet gum trees and a ravine complete with waterfall is nearby.

The Speirs are getting acquainted with their new neighbors and Susan, 4, has picked up a Southern drawl since August.

THE BEN BENSONS of Madison Avenue returned from two weeks at Torch Lake in time for Mr. Benson to pick up his script from the Chestnut Street Village Players. He will play the romantic lead in their first production of the season, "Pillow Talk," in October. Talent seems to attract talent, as Mrs. Benson has been chosen assistant music director of her church, where she spends two days a week working with the choir.

MR. NOAH BLOSSER principal of Greenfield School, introduced new teachers at the school's first PTA meeting last week, where the program for the coming year was outlined.

Also introduced were new selected PTA officers Mrs. John Stewart, president; Mr. Robert Service, father vice president; Mrs. Ray Becker, mother vice president; Mr. Armand Evrard, teacher vice president; Mr. Edwin Schreck, treasurer; and Mrs. Ralph Carey, secretary.

A series of colored slides with taped commentary was shown to parents to acquaint them with the functions of Mrs. Frances Curtin, school nurse; Miss Dorothy Smith, visiting teacher; and Mr. Colgate, speech correctionist. A discussion period was followed by refreshment time, provided by a committee headed by Mrs. Ben Durda.

MR. AND MRS. ROGER O. Persons, brand new Beverly residents, opened their doors to friends and neighbors for a casual housewarming party.

Invitations were extended by way of a clever coupon to Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Stevenson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Grierson, Mr. and Mrs. Murray Cotter, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Kamp, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Atkins, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Nigbor, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lambert.

HAVING RETAINED her membership in the North Roseade Garden Club, Mrs. Lindsay Gay of Devonshire Road, was able to hostess a luncheon meeting for this group last Friday.

The program, "Gardens of the World," was presented by Mrs. Harold Blunden. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mika were out of town week-end guests at the Gay home, and friends of course know that Mrs. Mika is the former Peg Gay, Alpena Community College, Al-

Birthday Girl Celebrates

Cindy Kay Craig, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Roy D. Craig of Park St., Birmingham, celebrated her seventeenth birthday Sept. 6 at a patio party given by her parents in their home. Guests included classmates from Seaholm, where Cindy is a junior, and program for the evening consisted of dancing, vocalizing (with Cindy, Candy Adams and Diane Pigman at the mike) and a steak roast at midnight.

How casual can you get?

You'll never know until you relax on a Grace Line Casual Cruise. No cha-cha, no dressing for dinner. Just 17 to 19 days of swimming, shooting off fireworks, passenger-cargo "Santas." All staterooms outside, each with private bath and air conditioning... lined outdoor pool. Wide variety of off-the-beaten-track Caribbean and South American ports. Friday sailings from New York. A back-to-school party was the occasion for the announcement of the engagement of Luane Gail Buchanan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd R. Buchanan of Lampwick Ct., Bloomfield Hills, to Earl George Greighton, son of Mrs. Sally E. Purdon of Lake Orion. The young couple, who met while attending Oakland University, is planning a February wedding.

Have You Met...

Mr. and Mrs. Kevin Whiting and 10-month-old Stephen moved from Grandfield into their first home at 15500 Buckingham, Beverly Hills. Mr. Whiting graduated from the University of Detroit and is currently working on his master's degree at Wayne State University. Mrs. Whiting is a Michigan State University graduate, and is originally from Chicago. The Whitings are learning bridge. Mr. Whiting plays golf and Mrs. Whiting enjoys bicycling.

and Mrs. Marshall Pickell, treasurer, a member of International sorority Alpha Phi, met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Carl Bluman of Old Salem Court for their first meeting of the season, which included brunch. Attending from Beverly Hills were Mrs. John R. Miller, Mrs. Hugh Barber, Mrs. Don Borgeson, Mrs. Stanley Hanson, and Mrs. Jack Putnam.

A "WERNIE ROAST" with games and prizes for 46 children between the ages of eight and 12 was held Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Harriman on Woodhaven Lane. The boys and girls in on the fun are children of members of the South Berkshires Women's Association, which sponsored the affair.

B. C. D. Goes into Action
Mrs. M. M. Burgess of Country Club Drive, Bloomfield Hills, opened her home Wednesday for a tea honoring mothers of new students at Bloomfield Country Day School.

In the meantime, members of the Dads' Club at BCD are rallying to make Oct. 8 a long-remembered evening. That's the night they're helping sponsor a pre-chiefs performance of "Holiday on Ice" at Convention Arena, Detroit.

Heading up the masculine contingent is John Booth, president of Dads' Club, assisted by co-chairmen Bud Richardson and Jesse Judd.
