

Mfgs. Bank To Utilize Local Water

Birmingham water will be supplied to the new Manufacturers National Bank on N. Woodward until Bloomfield Township connects with the Detroit water system within the next few months.

City commissioners Monday night authorized the mayor and city clerk to enter the agreement with bank.

Last month Manufacturers announced plans to construct a $250,000 building on the property. The bank is located outside the Birmingham city limits on the east side of Woodward, north of the junction of Hunter Blvd. and N. Woodward.

THE BIRMINGHAM Water Dept. has been supplying water to the property since 1942. The present system will not be adequate for the new building but will be sufficient for use during the construction period.

Under the agreement Manufacturers will pay double rates for water service and bear the cost of the installation, maintenance or removal of equipment from the property.

The earliest surviving academic building in the United States was erected in 1695. It was designed by Sir Christopher Wren for the College of William and Mary in Williamsburg, Va. The building was later used as a hospital by George Washington in the Yorktown campaign of the American Revolution.

DR. JOHN B. SMITH, (left), Birmingham's new superintendent of Schools, met the staffs of the various schools Monday afternoon at Groves High School. Before his address to the gathering, Dr. Smith talked with Beverly Pauling, business education teacher at Groves, and Carole Sturtevant, elementary art teacher. Both teachers, like Dr. Smith, are new to the Birmingham School System.

ly involved, there are times when it appears no situation can be quite like ours," he said.

"AT ALL TIMES, we must keep in mind the task at hand—to do the very best we can for each youngster placed in our charge.

"This means that we must leave nothing undone in teaching him to read critically, think analytically and communicate clearly.

"In addition we must do all in our power to inculcate in each youngster, regardless of his ability, a desire to learn and to continue to do so after he has finished his formal schooling."

He said this may well be the number one goal of education and the guarantee of the preservation of the American way of life.

FRANKLIN VILLAGE Calendars Updated As Fall Season Begins

By NITA HARD MA 6-3224

Calendars have to be re-oriented to cope with the seasonal surge of activity. Cub scouts, Couples Club, Players, Franklin Forum and Torch Drive come into focus with new exciting programs for their membership.

Cub Scout Pack 1011 will be registering boys today at 7:30 p.m. at Franklin School. Cider and doughnuts will highlight this first organizational meeting.

THE FRANKLIN FORUM, sponsored by the Friends of the Franklin Library have launched their season ticket sales campaign for the 1963-64 program. Heading up the advance arrangements are Mrs. Ralph Charbeneau and Mrs. D. Preston Dozier, Jr.

Program arrangements scheduled by Mrs. Max Miller and Mrs. Herman Chapin include an illustrated group of speakers for the four programs in October, November, March and April.

On Oct. 8, Willard B. Stouffer, Jr., will relate his experiences with the "First U.S. Peace Corps in Nigeria."

ON NOV. 12, the Rev. Joseph A. Pelham, Trinity Episcopal Church in Farmington, will discuss "The Role of Religion in A Changing Society."

On March 10 there will be a preview of the Stratford Festival Season.

And on April 14, Jason Tickton, professor of music at Wayne State University, will preview the 1964 Metropolitan Opera season.

All the programs are held at the Franklin Community church at 1:30 p.m. and a social hour with Mrs. Fred Ziegel as hostess chairman will provide refreshments.

IT'S A LAST call for reservations for the Couples Club' annual hayride, Oct. 4. Reservations must be made with Mrs. Thomas Corlinder of S. Greenbrier or Dr. and Mrs. David Roberts by Sept. 27. The couples will meet at Upland Hills Stables in Rochester for a harvest moon hay-ride and dinner afterwards.

MRS. CARL RASMUSSEN, area chairman for the Torch Fund Drive reports that district chairmen are having "coffee" for their teams of volunteers who will solicit for the drive.

Mrs. Bruce Andrews of Haverford entertained her team Sept. 20. On Sept. 27, solicitors working with Mrs. Robert Ramsey will meet at her Lucerne Drive home for an informal briefing.

Mrs. Allan Donald, with Mrs. Frank McCoard assisting, will have a coffee for her teams.

The morning meetings will continue to be held for the next few weeks by other district chairmen.

FRANKLIN VILLAGE Players will open their 11th season under the guidance of Harold Rowe, with a dinner meeting Sept. 27 at McInerney's on Northwestern.

Starting at 7:30, the dinner (by reservation only) will be followed by a showing of movies taken of the "Man in the Dog Suit" production. Cameraman Richard Probat has titled and edited the documentation of the late spring production. Members will hear production plans and committee assignments.

West Bloomfield To Extend Fire Protection Pact

The West Bloomfield Township board ratified continuation of the township's present contract to furnish fire protection for the cities of Keego Harbor and Sylvan at a meeting of the board last week.

The cities will each pay $6,000 a year for fire service. A charge of $75 per run will be charged after the first five runs. Reusucator calls are $40 per run.

THE BOARD ALSO authorized purchase of five lots in Sylvan Manor subdivision for a township park site.

It agreed to allow 18 lots in Shorecliff Subdivision in the Village of Orchard Lake to tie into the Farmington Interceptor on a temporary basis.

Explosion Victim Makes Headway In Recovery Bid

Mrs. Gertrude Bramley, trapped under tons of rubble in a Bloomfield Township explosion Sept. 14, is making satisfactory progress toward recovery, according to William Beaumont Hospital officials.

Mrs. Bramley, 52, is listed in "fairly good" condition and in "good spirits." She was on the critical and guarded list for a week after being admitted.

She suffered a broken arm and fractured pelvis two weeks ago when a boiler exploded at the home of her son-in-law, Max H. Fruhauf, 3782 Brookside.

RESCUE WORKERS worked for three hours in freeing Mrs. Bramley, who was trapped under falling beams, slate roofing and bricks.

Bloomfield Township firemen have estimated damage to the 42-room house at $169,500, including $25,500 for contents. They believe a defective safety valve on a boiler caused the explosion.

Fruhauf said the one wing left standing and the garage will be razed. He does not plan to rebuild on the five-acre site, he said.
