

County Med Society Opens Fall Season

Mrs. Elmer Mueller opened her Arlington Drive home Sept. 18 for a tea for members of the Women's Auxiliary of the Oakland County Medical Society.

Over 100 ladies attended the membership tea which was the kick-off for the season. Also in attendance were the girls who received scholarships from last year's fund raising projects.

PAST PRESIDENTS of the auxiliary were honored by being asked to pour. They were Mesdames E. J. Westfall, E. E. Elder, E. W. Spahn, I. A. LaCore, R. M. Fox, D. Smith, F. W. Prather, K. Vandenberg and M. L. Shadley.

The annual meeting of the Michigan State Medical Association is taking place this week in Grand Rapids.

The eight delegates chosen from this area to attend Tuesday through Thursday are Mrs. C. J. Berger, Mrs. V. P. Russell, Mrs. G. W. Hague, Mrs. F. W. Prather, Mrs. F. T. Lahl, Mrs. L. J. Fink, Mrs. E. D. Elder and Mrs. E. J. Westfall.

THE FIRST business meeting of the auxiliary will be a dinner meeting at the Pagoda Inn Oct. 2. Following the 6:30 dinner the speaker, Sidney Krandal, of Krandal Jewelers, will show a movie entitled, "Romance of The Diamond."

Harold Wiggle will comment. Paul French will accompany. Hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. Arnold L. Brown and Mrs. James M. McHugh.

Pierce family Returns From 1st Tour of Europe

GLORIA JESSUP MA 6-3257

Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Pierce returned to their Long Lakes Road home last week end from 16 days in Europe. Accompanying them were their three sons. Fred, 19, is a student at the University of Michigan; Bill, 18, is a student at Brother Rice; and Bert, 11, attends St. Hugo.

The trip was an educational one for both Mr. and Mrs. Pierce and especially the boys. In this, their first trip to Europe, they saw every historical point of interest time would allow.

They engaged a chauffeur and guide who took them on a tour of London, Paris, Lucerne, Nice, Cannes and Monaco.

RECENT ARRIVALS from Ventura, Calif., are Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Harker. They will be visiting for the next two weeks with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Garth Hintz of Crabtree Road.

After their two-week stay in France the Hankers will be joined by Mr. and Mrs. Hintz and their two daughters, Carrie and Cathy, in a journey to Washington, D. C. The two families will visit Mrs. Hintz's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Harker for five days.

MRS. ERSILA Heinemann of Kenilworth, Ill., returned home last Sunday after a five-day visit with Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Buchanan of Westwood Lane.

On Thursday Mrs. Heinemann was guest of honor at a luncheon at the Hunter's Whip given by Mrs. Buchanan. And on Friday, Mrs. Larry Eyer of Killy Road gave a coffee for her.

THE PARENT Teachers Organization of James B. Conant School has begun activities for the year.

Last week a coffee was given for the volunteer mothers who work in the library. Hostess was Mrs. Vince Sanderoock, circulation chairman.

On Thursday, Mrs. Sam Net-

les, homeroom mother chairman, and her assistant, Mrs. Al Rende, cohosted a coffee for all homeroom mothers. It was held at the Nettles home in the Dellis of Bloomfield.

Plans for Conant's Family Fun Fests, to be held throughout October and November, were formulated at this meeting.

THE PTO board met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bradley Radke of Westwood Lane on Monday evening.

The first general meeting of the PTO will be on Sept. 30. The guest speaker will be Dr. Almbinder who is the Bloomfield Hills Schools psychologist.

There will be a coffee hour preceding the 8:30 meeting.
