

MRS WHEATON

Rotunda Inn Is Scene Of Reception

Cynthia Anne Geisler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell William Geisler of Maplefield Road, Pleasant Ridge, spoke her marriage vows Saturday to John Warren Wheaton, son of Mrs. Genevieve D. Wheaton of Oak Park, formerly of Birmingham. The ceremony took place in Kirk-in-the-Hills and was followed by a reception at Rotunda Inn. The bride wore a gown of white bouquet taffeta fashioned with a chapel train. Imported velvet flowers and beading accented the redingote skirt and fitted bodice, and the sleeves were elbow-length lace. She carried white roses and ivy.

MARGARET JOHNSON of Lake Angelus was maid of honor, and Mrs. Robert Smith was matron of honor. Bridesmaids included Susan Wheaton, sister of the bridegroom, and Gwynn Geisler of Detroit, a cousin of the bride. They all wore floor-length gowns of petal pink chiffon and matching headpieces. Their flowers were miniature roses and ivy. Robert Wright of Royal Oak was best man, and seating the guests were Robert Smith, William Beyma of Ferndale and George Russell Geisler, brother of the bride.

Following a two-weeks' tour of the eastern states, the couple will be at home in Royal Oak.
