Robin Eisen Competes for Miss Torch

By ELIZABETH VAN LOAN
MI 7-2324

Today the United Foundation will choose Miss Torch of 1963. Robin Eisen, daughter of the Robert Eisens of Eastmoor Road, is one of the four finalists. She will be competing with girls from Detroit, Dearborn and Royal Oak for the title.

Robin is a stewardess with American Airlines and also models for Patricia Stevens agency. In May she was fourth runner-up in the Miss Detroit contest. The 45 contestants awarded her the Miss Congeniality cup.

THE KIRKWOOD Improvement Association is hoping for fair skies and warm weather when it holds its first annual fall picnic Sunday.

Meeting place will be the pump house at the corner of Sutters Lane and Hedgewood. The hours are from 2 to 6 p.m. There will be games, races, prizes and balloons for the children.

Heading the committee for the event is Jack Ware of Sutters Lane, the association's recreation chairman. Committee members include Mrs. Ernest Edmoff, George Reasor and Paul Walters.

THE BROOKFIELD Highlands garden club will tour the Cranbrook gardens Monday morning. Mrs. John Quinn has invited members to her home at 4346 Fieldbrook Road for luncheon following the tour.

The Walnut Lake Women's Club will meet at 8 p.m. Tuesday.

Mrs. John Harold Speicher and Ensign Speicher are on a three-week trip to the West Coast following their marriage Sept. 14 in Trinity Lutheran Church, Fort Wayne, Ind. Formerly Linda Lee Lutten, the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Lutten of Fort Wayne, and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Speicher of Hickory Hollow Drive, Birmingham. Following their trip, the couple will live in San Diego, Calif., where the bridegroom is stationed. Among Birmingham people attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Johnston, Jr.

at the West Bloomfield Township library on Middlebelt Road. The program planned is "A Sneak Preview of Christmas." Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mahler of Woodwind Drive will entertain friends at a party Saturday night.

MRS. FRANK Arnold of Pebleshire Road entertained at a bridge-luncheon yesterday. Guests included Mesdames Robert Mahler, George Reasor, Frank Gagnier, Thomas Bewick, John Kaitke, Robert Carey, Raymond Hajjar, Eugene Kondzi, Paul Walters, Stan Ainsley and Martin Healey.

A meeting of the 34 room mothers of Meadowlake School was held Sept. 16 at the school under the direction of the mother vice president of the PTA, Mrs. James Maunders of Idlewild Road.

Appointed as coordinating room mothers for emergency phoning were Mrs. Charles Campbell for grades kindergarten through 2; Mrs. Barney Tyler, grades 2 through 4; and Mrs. Donald Ditz, grades 5 and 6.

It was decided to cut down on the number of classroom parties. Excluding the kindergarten classes, parties for the higher grades will be restricted to two parties a year, Christmas and end-of-school.

TWO PROUD parents watching graduation exercises of the Harper Hospital School of Nursing Thursday evening in Detroit's Rackham Memorial Building were Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Edly of E. Newland Drive. Their daughter, Susan, was one of the graduates.

On Monday, Susan started her nursing duties at Pontiac General Hospital.

WITH THE Christ Child Society's annual carnival in Gobo Hall looming on the horizon, these are busy days for Mrs. Frank Gagnier of Kingsmill Drive. As chairman of the Country Store, which is the handicraft booth, she has been attending presales in the metropolitan area.

Tomorrow she and her co-chairman, Mrs. Thomas Armstrong, are off to Dearborn. On Tuesday they will turn out for a presale in Detroit and on Oct. 10 will attend another one in Grosse Pointe.

Mrs. Joseph Juetz of Walnut Lake Road is financial chairman for the Country Store.

A NEW BABY, two new puppies and house guests all combined recently to give the Richard Bergmanns of Darraamoor Road a week end they'll never forget.

On Sept. 6, his brother-in-law and sister, the Robert Gordons of Park Ridge, Ill., arrived in town for a wedding the following day. Since the baby wasn't expected until the middle of September, the Bergmanns, the next morning, brought home two new French poodle puppies to fill the void left by the recent death of their beloved Teddy. One is an apricot female, Puffin; the other, a two-tone male called Pepper.

THINGS WERE proceeding on an even keel that evening, and hosts and guests had settled down to watch the Miss America pageant on TV when Mrs. Bergmann decided it was time to leave for Beaumont Hospital.

At two minutes after midnight Sept. 8, Gordon Fraser Bergmann was born. He joins Richard, 7; Timothy, 5; and Peter, 2, as well as Puffin and Pepper to make up one of the liveliest households in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Potter of Comfort Drive are back from a week's stay in New York City. With the Essex House as home base, they visited friends in Westchester and attended Broadway plays and TV shows.

IT'S BEEN something of a full house at the John Evans' on Westmoor Road.

On Sept. 11, a seventh grandchild arrived for the Evans, so Karen Rankin, 4, and her sister, Jill, 2 of Livonia came to stay with Grandma while their mother, Mrs. William Edward Rankin, was in the hospital with new sister Wendy Ellen.

That same day, their great-grandmother, Mrs. Mabel Mattrott arrived from Tampa, Fla.

COUSINS FROM Terre Haute, Ind. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Davis, were guests over the week end of Sept. 14 and 15.

The Evans clan attended the wedding Sept. 14 of a nephew, Dallas Archer, to Julie Storch of Beverly Hills in Detroit's Holy Cross Lutheran Church.

The Richard McLaughlins moved Tuesday from Idlewild Road to their new home on Deepwood Drive in the Gilbert Lake area.

Have You Met . . .
Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Liverance, 19230 Hickory Leaf Lane, Southfield? They moved to Cranbrook Village recently from Redford Township. Their son, Edward David, 19, is a seaman with the Navy and is stationed at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba. Mr. Liverance is associated with the Vickers Corp. In his spare time he enjoys taking commercial art courses. Mrs. Liverance also enjoys art and likes to do flower arranging.
