

If you became aware of the dire need for food, for example, of some stranger who lived on your street, or near your home, your impulse and action would surely be to provide this fellow-human being with a basket of things to eat. Thus you would be doing something necessary to make another happier. No single good help given to another is wasted. It helps to balance the books of Samaritanism. GOOD is thus manifested in and through you!

Travel Abroad Marks Anniversary

By MARTI CAHN
MI 6-2890

"The Campbells are coming" was the caption on an illustrated map which pictured the itinerary of Mr. and Mrs. Colin Campbell and daughter Heather of Bradway Blvd., presented to them by friends before their departure for Ireland, Scotland and England.

The trip was a twenty-fifth wedding anniversary surprise for Mrs. Campbell, revealed by a note surreptitiously added to her social calendar—two weeks were checked off for "travel abroad". Following their arrival in Shannon the family went to Killarney and toured the lakes, continuing on to visit Cork and Dublin.

Planning of surprises is apparently a Campbell family trait. Daughter Cynthia, medical technician from Ann Arbor on a three-month tour of the continent (See ANNIVERSARY, 3-CC)

Local Bands Audition for Assembly

Assembly parties—a series of dances at the Community House for eighth and ninth graders—will get under way Oct. 5. In preparation thereof, Assembly members Marcia Moyer and Pete Medonis have been among those helping audition local bands. Among those they heard were Larry Walker and Ben Mills (from left), representing the Phi-

Dels, and Elmer Clawson and Glenn Quackenbush, representing the Tremolos. Mrs. Walter Cronin and Mrs. Arthur Naylor are coordinators of Assembly, now going into its third season, assisted by Miss Florence S. Young. Membership in the group is derived from all junior high schools in the area.
